Shipping and Handling Policy

Shipping is calculated on real shipping costs. There is a $3.00 handling fee on each order. All orders for in-stock items are usually shipped within 24-48 hours. If the item is not in stock, you will be notified by a CCCB Publications customer service agent within 48 hours. We do not ship on Saturdays, Sundays or holidays.

Return Policy

All requests for returns, must be made within 60 days of the invoice date, except for annuals which cannot be returned after 30 days. All returns must be pre-authorized without exception. Before returning any of our products, please contact our office at 1-800-769-1147 to obtain an authorization number so that we can insure a prompt reimbursement service.

All books must be returned in a condition that permits resale. Damaged books (unless damaged upon receipt) will not be accepted for return. Only books in resalable condition (no text/cover damage, no stamping, no stickering, no highlighting, etc.) will be accepted for a full credit. Shrink wrapped items (e.g. CDs, DVDs and certain books) must be returned with the shrink wrap intact to be considered "new". CCCB reserves the right to reject books that are received in less than "new" condition. It is the customer's responsibility to package books in a protective manner.

A copy of the original invoice must accompany the return of the books as well as the authorization number clearly marked on the shipping box.

A restocking charge of 10% will be deducted from all returns.

We will refund shipping costs if the return is a result of our error. If you receive books that are damaged, we recommend that you place a call immediately to 1-800-769-1147 to make the necessary arrangements.

All returns must be sent to:

This symbol indicates texts that we import from Liturgy Training Publications, based in Chicago, Illinois. Because LTP's titles originate in the US, they inform and employ American Liturgy standards, which differ from Canadian standards. We have done our best to include only those titles that can be used with confidence in a Canadian environment. That said, please be mindful of potential differences.

LTP's mission statement is to promote the liturgical formation "of the faithful and also their active participation in the liturgy both internally and externally, taking into account their age and condition, their way of life, and their stage of religious development" so all the faithful may "become thoroughly imbued with the spirit and power of the liturgy." (Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy 19, 14)

LTP 2022 Liturgy and Appointment Calendar

This calendar helps you celebrate the liturgy each day! The calendar works like a mini-ordo – each day includes the liturgical observance (i.e. First Sunday of Advent, memorial of Our Lady of Sorrows, etc); the readings from the Daily Mass with citations from the Lectionary for Mass, the proper liturgical colours, as well as the psalter for the Liturgy of the Hours. The 2022 Liturgy and Appointment Calendar is an easy-to-use reference guide for liturgical preparation, organizing parish events within the liturgical year, and scheduling your personal, spiritual, and work life. It is essential for those actively involved in Church ministry and for lay Catholics.

 Year of Grace 2022 Calendar

LTP's circular display of the liturgical year makes its key features easily understandable. We can see at a glance the liturgical seasons in their characteristic colors, Sundays on the outer rim, and the days and weeks radiating from the center. The 2022 liturgical year follows the Sunday Year C cycle and the Weekday Year II cycle, beginning on November 28, 2021 (First Sunday of Advent) and ending on Saturday, November 26, 2022.

Use the Year of Grace calendar in many ways:

- Give (or sell) one to every household in the parish and school.
- Hang one in every classroom, meeting room, and in the church vestibule to teach about the liturgical year.
- Assign students to report on specific liturgical days.
- Present calendars to first communicants and Confirmation candidates.

Our troubled world needs much mercy, and giving it can bring us joy. The illustrations on this calendar will invite us to be actively merciful all through the year.

Excerpts from the Roman Missal*

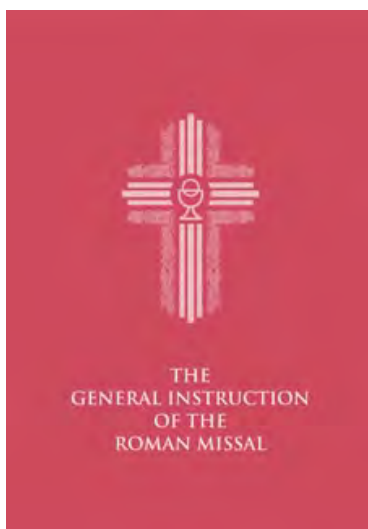

Excerpts from the Roman Missal (formerly referred to as the “Book of the Chair”) has been long awaited. For priests, it serves as an alternative to the Roman Missal at the Presider’s Chair. It is light, smaller in thickness than the Order of Christian Funerals and the same dimensions as other ritual books published by CCCB Publications.

The print contrast has been improved from the Roman Missal and the font is substantially larger than the Chapel edition. Another great addition to this publication is the inclusion of options for the third form of the Penitential Act.

Eucharistic Prayers for Masses with Children*

This book contains the revised translations of three “Eucharistic Prayers for Masses with Children”, approved for use in Canada by the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments. The large black bold font is easy to read. This easily portable, hardcover book can be used on the altar with the Roman Missal. It is ideal for Masses celebrated with schools or large groups of children!

Book of Gospels*

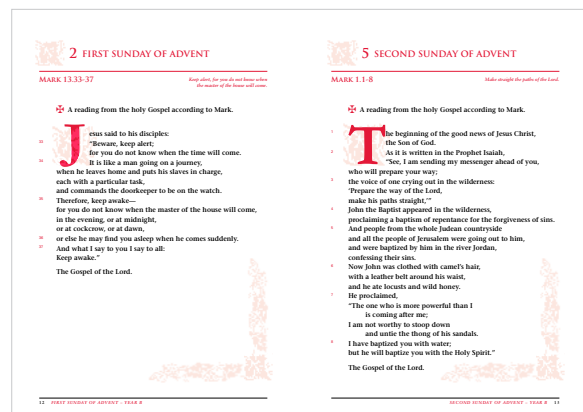

After years in the making, the Catholic Church in Canada is pleased to have a Canadian edition of the Book of Gospels. Our Book of Gospels contains all of the NRSV Gospel passages from the Lectionary: Sundays and Solemnities and the Lectionary: Ritual Masses, Masses for Various Needs and Occasions, Votive Masses and Masses for the Dead. Hence it contains all the Gospels for Sundays, Solemnities, Major Feasts, special celebrations particular to Canada (such as Thanksgiving or Remembrance Day), all of the Sacraments as well as those for Funeral Liturgies.

Recognizing that churches vary considerably in size, two convenient sizes of the Book of Gospels have been published. For those with limited space on the Ambo, the "Ambo edition" is the exact same height and width as the Sunday and Ritual Lectionaries (Ambo editions). For better visibility and prominence in a larger space, the "large format edition" is ideal for larger churches.

The use of the Book of Gospels is an integral part of the liturgy which is evident in the General Instruction of the Roman Missal. GIRM no. 60 states, "The reading of the Gospel constitutes the high point of the Liturgy of the Word. The Liturgy itself teaches the great reverence that is to be shown to this reading by setting it off from the other readings with special marks of honour, by the fact of which minister is appointed to proclaim it and by the blessing or prayer with which he prepares himself; and also by the fact that through their acclamations the faithful acknowledge and confess that Christ is present and is speaking to them and stand as they listen to the reading; and by the mere fact of the marks of reverence that are given to the Book of Gospels."

GIRM no. 349 states, "Special care must be taken to ensure that the liturgical books, particularly the Book of Gospels and the Lectionary, which are intended for the proclamation of the Word of God and hence receive special veneration, are to be in a liturgical action truly signs and symbols of higher realities and hence should be truly worthy, dignified, and beautiful."

The "Introduction" of the Book of Gospels mandated by the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments notes in no. 7, "the Book of Gospels as a sign of the presence of Christ in his word proclaimed is always accorded a place of honour in the Church's liturgy."

Lectionary*

Ritual Masses, Masses for Various Needs and Occasions, Votive Masses, Masses for the Dead

Essential for every church and chapel and a distinct colour to help distinguish it from other volumes of the Lectionary! This newest volume contains passages from the NRSV version of Sacred Scripture, approved for use in Canada for a multitude of occasions and celebrations. There are sections containing celebrations pertaining to any Sacrament, Ritual and Special Occasion being celebrated outside of Sunday Mass. It also includes a new expanded selection of readings for Funeral Liturgies and Masses for the Dead (approved by the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments) for use in Canada.

The section on "Masses for Various Needs and Occasions" provides a multitude of suggestions for a wide variety of situations pertaining to Church life; Civic Needs; Public Needs including For the Blessing of Human Labour, In Time of Famine, For the Sick, and In Thanksgiving to God; to name a few! There are also numerous selections for Votive Masses.

This newest volume of the Lectionary is available in three convenient formats. The standard size for churches, a hard cover Chapel Edition and, for planning purposes, a Study Edition!

- Readings are presented in a clear single-column format with distinct sense lines.
- Titles, references and instructions are printed in the traditional red, separating them from the proclaimed text.
- Specially selected matt paper reduces glare under harsh lighting conditions.
- Large, bold elegant typeface facilitates legibility in low lighting.

Lectionary for Sundays and Solemnities*

The revised Lectionary: Sundays and Solemnities retains the majesty of the NRSV text, benefiting from the rigorous translation practices of current biblical scholarship. Original texts are rendered into contemporary English with increased fidelity. Skillfully edited and beautifully designed for ease of proclamation, every aspect of the new Lectionary contributes to the dignified proclamation of the Word.

- Readings are presented in a clear single-column format with distinct sense lines.
- Titles, references and instructions are printed in the traditional red, separating them from the proclaimed text.
- Specially selected matt paper reduces glare under harsh lighting conditions.
- Large, bold elegant typeface facilitates legibility in low lighting.

Clearly structured tables are easy to use and will facilitate preparation for a multitude of celebrations.

Weekday Lectionary*

The Lectionary: Weekdays comes in two volumes. Each volume includes the ferial and sanctoral readings. Volume A covers Advent to Pentecost; Volume B covers Ordinary Time (May to November). The readings for Ordinary Time are placed in separate sections for Years I and II.

Volume A • Volume B

The Lectionary: Weekdays – Ambo Edition – Volume A and B and Study Edition – Volume A are out of print. Until the “revised” Lectionary for Weekdays is in print, a PDF is available on the National Liturgy Office website at www.cccb.ca under “Liturgy & Sacraments / Resources in English / Weekday Lectionary”.

LTP The Word of the Lord at Mass

Understanding the Lectionary

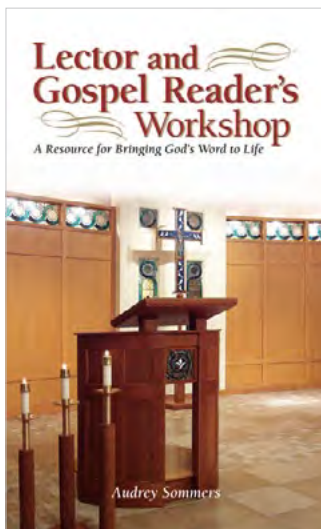

This resource explains what a Lectionary is, how it developed over centuries, and how our current Lectionary grew out of the Second Vatican Council and differs from previous ones. It explains why readings are chosen and combined and the various implications of those choices. It especially highlights how, in harmony with the liturgical year, the Lectionary presents Bible selections that unfold Christ's Paschal Mystery. The book also discusses the ecumenical impact of the Catholic Lectionary.

Finally, it explains the physical aspects of the Lectionary's layout and gives a tour of the four volumes. Designed to be friendly and accessible, the book includes quotes from Church documents, charts, glossary, and suggestions for further reading. This book will enrich liturgical ministers and anyone interested in the role of the Bible in Catholic life.

LTP Lector and Gospel Reader's Workshop

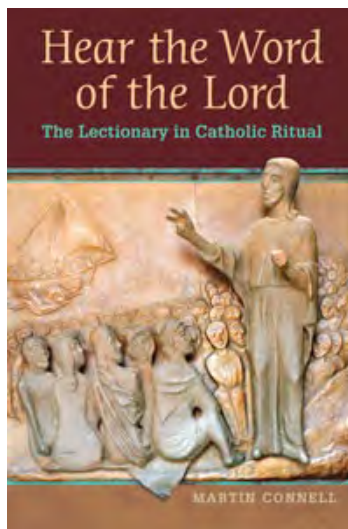

A Resource for Bringing God's Word to Life

Lector and Gospel Reader's Workshop is an interactive video workshop on DVD that combines the liturgical and spiritual aspects of being an effective lector with public speaking techniques. The workshop addresses the role of the lector according to Vatican II and provides the latest information on the General Instruction of the Roman Missal. Participants will learn breathing techniques and will recite Scriptural tongue twisters and word emphasis exercises before proclaiming a reading on camera for group critiques. The kit contains all instruction, promotion, and marketing materials electronically for a parish to have a successful workshop. It also provides prayers and valuable handouts for home study.

LTP Baptized for Discipleship

The Meaning of Baptism for Our Christian Life

The life of Christian discipleship begins at Baptism. Through the life-saving waters, a new Christian is freed from sin, shares in the death and Resurrection of Christ, and is made a member of the Body of Christ, the Church. But with this gift from God comes important responsibilities. This short booklet explores the Catholic understanding of the Sacrament of Baptism and the baptized Christian's important role in sharing the light of Christ. The questions at the end of each short chapter will help readers reflect upon what it means to be a Christian disciple in the world today, living lives of justice, charity, and love.

LTP The Godparent Book

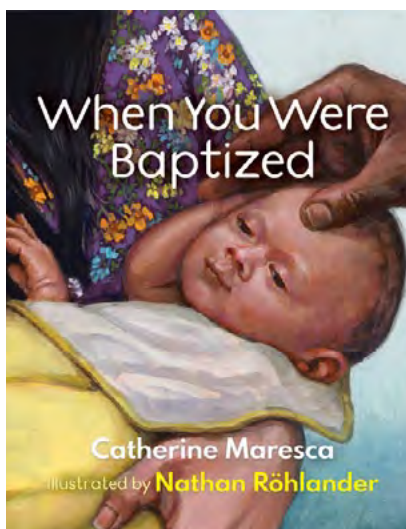

Ideas and Activities for Godparents and Their Godchildren

In The Godparent Book, Elaine Ramshaw is encouraging, reassuring, energizing, and resourceful. Building on the idea that godparent and godchild are two Christians discovering together what it means to be baptized, she provides scores of ideas for relating at every age and in many circumstances—ideas that are appropriate for all the churches that call for godparents. Godparents will find advice that serves well when the godchild is a baby, toddler, teen, or young adult. They will learn how to relate through imaginary play, conversations, walks in the woods, reading, drawing, viewing films, listening to music together, and more.

LTP When You Were Baptized

The sacrament of Baptism welcomes us into a community of faith and prepares us for life in God. Each gift received on the day of our Baptism will grow in meaning and purpose as we grow in faith. Using age-appropriate text and engaging illustrations, When You Were Baptized invites children to reflect on this sacrament through the rituals and symbols of the Baptismal rite: water, light, holy oil, God's Word, and the baptismal garment. Each time they read When You Were Baptized, parents and their children will recall their baptismal day and form a loving bond around their memories of when they were welcomed into a community of Christian faith.

LTP Your Child's Baptism

Revised Edition

Fr. Paul Turner, known for his friendly style and authoritative content, helps parents understand what they need to know about their child's Baptism. He invites them into the mystery of this first sacrament in the life of a Christian, explaining its theology, symbolism, and the ritual itself. He provides pastoral answers to many technical questions parents might have about such matters as when and where Baptism should take place, arrangements when a parent is not Catholic, and the requirements for godparents. He especially encourages parents to take the long view and understand their unique role in raising a disciple of Christ.

LTP Preaching for Discipleship

Preparing Homilies for Christian Initiation

In Preaching Discipleship: Preparing Homilies for Christian Initiation, Michael E. Connors, CSC, provides homilists and catechists with the tools to evangelize not only the catechumens present, but also to capture the imagination of the parish community so that they too realize their own role in the Christian Initiation process. This resource will:

- Help the homilist build a homily; foster a deeper appreciation of the call to discipleship on the part of the assembly
- Help the homilist instruct the assembly on their role in the Rite of Christian Initiation "so that right from the outset the catechumens may feel that they belong to the people of God"
- Help the homilist bring the baptized and catechumens into a deeper personal relationship with the Lord
- Provide specific insights during the period of Mystagogy

LTP Understanding the Sacraments of Initiation

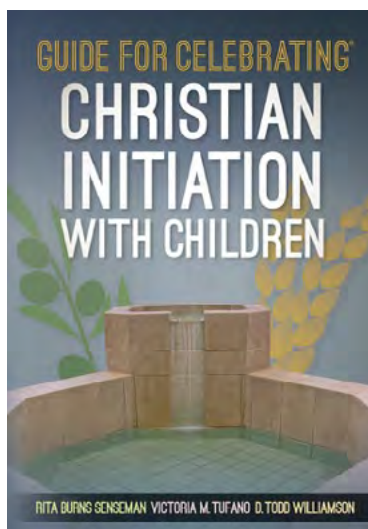

A Rite-Based Approach

Guiding readers through the rites of Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist, Understanding the Sacraments of Initiation examines each of the rites' Old Testament foundations, liturgical history, and sacramental theology, exploring the way in which the sacraments of Initiation affect and influence one's daily Christian life. Understanding the Sacraments of Initiation will emphasize the liturgy as an encounter between God and his children in Christ and the Holy Spirit. It contains a brief history and structure of the Rite. Because of the basic grounding in sacramental theology, this volume is especially useful for catechists, DRE's, catechists who teach sacramental preparation, liturgists, seminarians, deacon formation and continuing adult formation programs.

LTP Sacraments of Initiation, Second Edition

A Theology of Rite, Word and Life

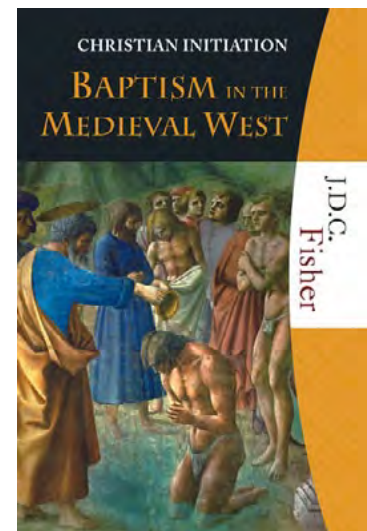

The original edition of this book, in 1988, presented a theology of sacraments that emerged out of a Church stirred into new life by the Second Vatican Council. It is a theology that can claim to have been continuously received in the Catholic Church since then. This new edition has the advantage of being able to look not only at the twenty years of reception of its contents, but also at the way some counter-currents have developed over those years, both in theory and in practice. The sacramental theology contained in this study maintains the broad on-going agreement between what it proposes and mainstream Church teaching and practice, it has, as a work of theology, to take seriously some of the alternatives.

LTP A Harvest for God

Christian Initiation in the Rural and Small-Town Parish

Much has been written about Christian initiation, but most of it is written from the perspective of the large urban or suburban parish. People in rural areas and small towns live in a culture different from those in cities and suburbs, and the ministry to catechumens and candidates should reflect those differences. In A Harvest for God: Christian Initiation in the Rural and Small-Town Parish, Michael Clay offers practical, step-by-step insights into implementing the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults in a way that is faithful to the rite and respectful of rural culture. Anyone who ministers in a rural or small-town catechumenate will find this book a valuable aid in their work.

LTP My Sacrifice and Yours

Our Participation in the Eucharist

In this short booklet, Paul Turner unpacks the meaning of the sacrifice of the Mass. In pastoral language, he explores more deeply how our participation in the Mass unites us to Christ. Through this guided reflection, we will become aware of the sacrifice Christ made for us, how we participate in this sacrifice each time we gather and participate in the Eucharistic mystery, and how we give back as his disciples. This booklet may be used at any time during the liturgical year, but is extremely appropriate during the season of Lent. It may be used by parish worship teams to explore the nature of the Eucharist as sacrifice as a resource for adult formation sessions.

The Celebration of Eucharist for the 21st Century*

The celebration of the Mass in the 21st century has a new translation, but it keeps the same understanding that was handed on to the Apostles at the Last Supper. This fascinating DVD prepared by the National Liturgy Office of the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops presents these foundational ideas behind the Mass and gives guidance to those who want to celebrate it with the noble simplicity that the Church teaches is to be at the heart of our entire liturgy. The celebration of the Mass is shown in small segments, designed for workshop and discussion groups.

Whose Mass Is It?

Why People Care So Much About the Catholic Liturgy

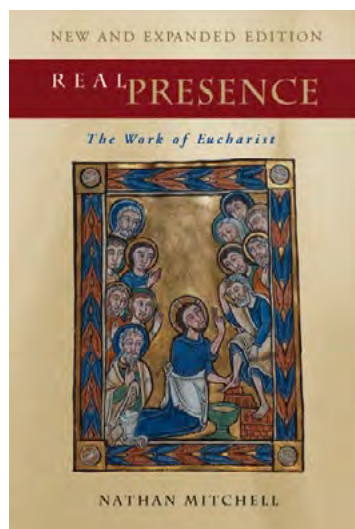

Within a single generation, English-speaking Catholics experienced the Second Vatican Council's authorization for the first overhaul of the liturgy in four hundred years, and then, in 2011, they prepared for and implemented a revised vernacular translation. Each of these two events awakened strong feelings—and no small amount of lament from other Christian bodies who share the basic structure and content of the Roman Catholic Mass—as people gradually became aware that someone else's decision was going to affect the cornerstone of their spiritual life. In Whose Mass Is It? Paul Turner examines the impact of the Mass, the connections it makes, and its purpose in the lives of believers.

LTP The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass

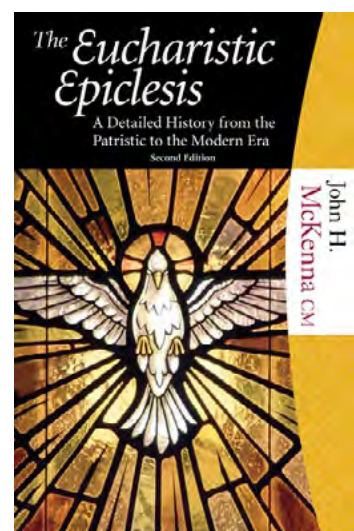

This unique study explores the coherence of the Catholic tradition in relation to the fundamentals of faith. It will provide the reader with a contemporary understanding of traditional sacrifice. Catholic theology has struggled for an adequate account of the doctrine of sacrifice. In this book, McGuckian contends that the "concept of sacrifice is central to the whole vision of faith. The Eucharist makes the Church, and the Eucharist is a sacrifice, so if we do not understand sacrifice we do not understand the Church."

LTP Guide for Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion

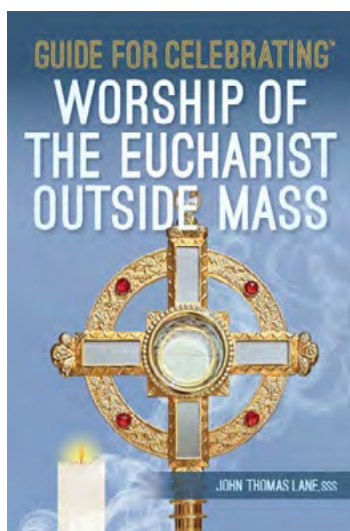

Third Edition

The celebration of the Eucharist is the heart of the Church. Participating in this sacrament enables the Catholic faithful to encounter the presence, love, and mercy of Christ. Because this sacrament is so important, the Church provides the option for lay ministers to distribute the Body and Blood of Christ when there is not enough priests and deacons available to do so; Extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion are also deputed for ministry at Mass and for the needs of the sick, the homebound, and the dying. This third edition has been updated with enhanced content and features.

LTP The Sacrament of Reconciliation

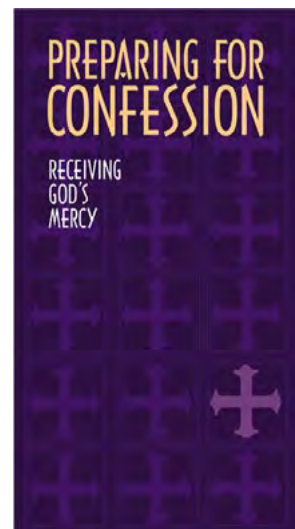

An Anthropological and Scriptural Understanding

The Sacrament of Reconciliation is a comprehensive and accessible resource for undergraduate, graduate, and seminary courses on the Sacrament of Reconciliation. It offers an overview of the sacrament in terms of its anthropological, scriptural, historical, and theological roots as well as an analysis of the key components of the sacrament itself (matter, form, minister, recipient, etc.). With the knowledge of a theologian and the skill of an historian, Robert Fastiggi links the Sacrament of Penance to its anthropological foundations, grounded in the recognition of human failure and the need for forgiveness.

The Order of Celebrating Matrimony*

The Order of Celebrating Matrimony for use in Canada is a translation of the Second Edition of the Latin Ordo celebrandi Matrimonium of 1991. "It is the sole English – language translation and version hereby permitted for use in the Dioceses of Canada immediately upon publication. Its use is mandatory beginning September 8, 2017."

There are a number of substantial changes from the original 1969 edition. This latest edition has an expanded Praenotanda (Introduction) which elaborates upon the Church's theology of Marriage. It also includes a rite for "The Order of Celebrating Matrimony in the Presence of an Assisting Layperson".

Pastoral Notes provided by the Episcopal Commission for Liturgy and the Sacraments and a laminated card with the French version of "The Consent" accompanies each copy.

The Order of Celebrating Matrimony – Pastoral Notes

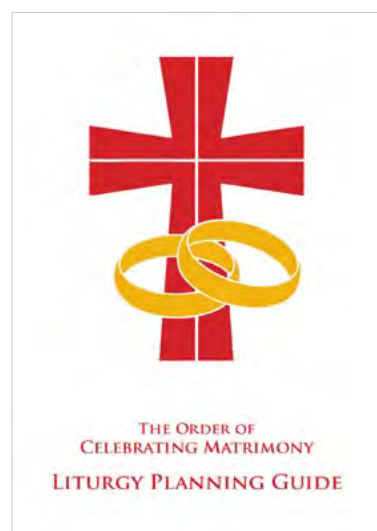

The Episcopal Commission for Liturgy and the Sacraments has prepared Pastoral Notes to assist Priests, Deacons, Assisting Laypersons, other assisting liturgical ministers (such as musicians and cantors) and all others charged with helping prepare couples for the "Order of Celebrating Matrimony". One copy of the Pastoral Notes is included with every ritual book.

LTP Living the Mystery of Marriage

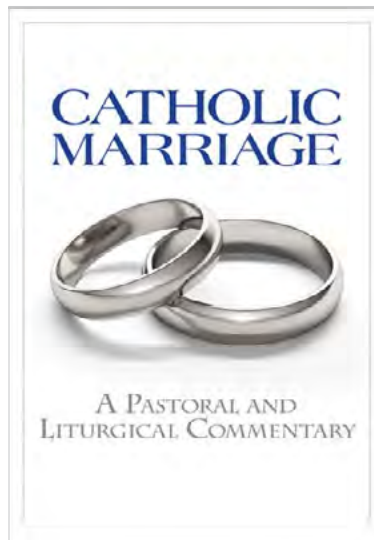

Building Your Sacramental Life Together

Living the Mystery of Marriage assists those called to marriage to live out the wonderful, beautiful, and challenging mystery of married love. Dr. Cahall writes in accessible language to present a theology, spirituality, and morality of marriage. Insightful "Self-Discovery" discussion questions are included to help couples process presented information. "Questions That Might Be on Your Mind" will engage the reader through the real world issues couples confront today. This resource also provides priests, deacons, and all ministers engaged in marriage preparation with a foundation of the Church's teaching as well as an introduction to Pope St. John Paul II's Theology of the Body.¹

One Love

A Pastoral Guide to the Order of Celebrating Matrimony

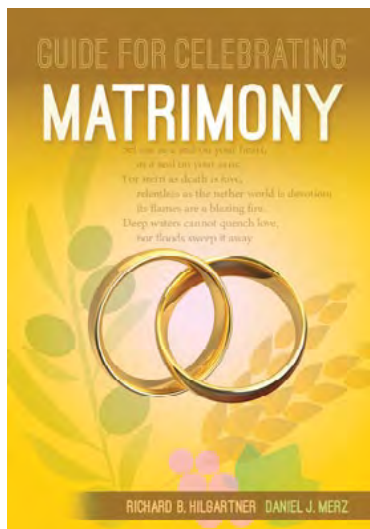

The publication of the second edition of The Order of Celebrating Matrimony provides new liturgical and pastoral opportunities for presiders and parishes. In One Love, Fr. Paul Turner – one of the most reliable experts in Catholic liturgy today – provides sound guidance and instruction on the rite. Among the many important and practical topics he covers are:

- uses for the expanded introduction
- the location for the wedding
- the revised questions before the consent, the consent, and reception of consent
- other wedding customs
- blessing of an engaged couple
- and more

One Love promises to be the go-to liturgical resource on Catholic weddings for years to come.

LTP Do Not Let Your Hearts Be Troubled
The Catholic Understanding
of Death and Eternal Life

The death of a loved one is a difficult experience for those who grieve. However, we are comforted by our Christian faith in Christ, who conquered death and leads the way to eternal life. This short booklet explores the Catholic understanding of eternal life, provides an overview of the primary funeral rites (the Vigil, Funeral Liturgy, and Committal), and offers practical ways we can remember those who have died. The questions at the end of each short chapter will help readers find hope in the promise of resurrection.

LTP Baptismal Ecclesiology
and the Order of Christian
Funerals

Throughout this work, Fr. Stephen S. Wilbricht, csc, emphasizes the link between Baptism and death, assisting Christians in grasping who we are called to be in this life as disciples and who we are promised to become in eternal life as saints. As the author points out the centrality of baptismal identity to the funeral liturgy, he makes apparent that the union established at Baptism continues until all reach Christ. Such an appreciation for life in the Body of Christ will help the community recognize both their responsibilities at the death of a member and the union that remains with that member as all journey to the divine. Wilbricht explores the Church's theology of Baptism and death, and provides pastoral suggestions that will encourage communities to carry out their commitment to care for the grieving and bury the dead.

Light in the Darkness

Preparing Better Catholic Funerals

Although the Catholic funeral rite has not changed in the past few decades, society has. Parishes have new questions to face that their liturgical book does not consider: eulogies by family members, the final disposition of cremated remains, and the collapse of the traditional three-stage funeral liturgy. Light in the Darkness takes a fresh look at the pastoral challenges society is posing, while giving concrete suggestions for implementing the vision of the Catholic Church's Order of Christian Funerals. The appendix includes catechetical materials for families planning a funeral and an extended commentary on all the Scripture readings for a funeral Mass.

LTP The Book of the Names of the Dead

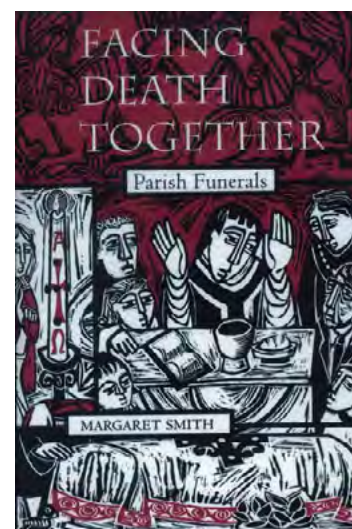

Second Edition

Many churches have the custom of giving a place of honor to a book in which parishioners write the names of their dead. This is such a book that has been carefully prepared—in its dimensions, paper, binding, and art—to be both beautiful and worthy of its task. In most parishes, this one volume will be large enough to receive names over many years. In addition to this unique book, you will also receive access to a free electronic handout that explains the tradition associated with the book, important theological concepts surrounding its use, and other important information.

The Order of Blessing the Oil of Catechumens and of the Sick and of Consecrating the Chrism*

The Chrism Mass, which the Bishop concelebrates with Priests from various regions of the diocese and during which he consecrates the sacred Chrism and blesses the other oils, is among the principal manifestations of the fullness of the Bishop's Priesthood and is considered to be a sign of the close bond of the Priests with him. For it is with the sacred Chrism consecrated by the Bishop that the newly baptized are anointed and those to be confirmed are signed. It is with the Oil of Catechumens that catechumens are prepared and disposed for Baptism. Finally, it is with the Oil of the Sick that those who are ill are comforted in their infirmity.

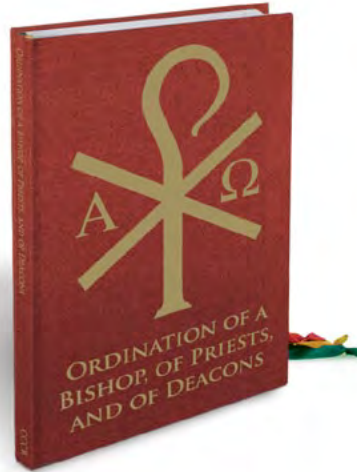

The use of these texts is mandatory in the Dioceses of Canada commencing March 25, 2018; Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord.

The hardcover book comes with a CD-Rom containing all the texts in electronic format for those who need to prepare booklets for bilingual celebrations.

LTP Guide for Celebrating® the Liturgy of the Hours

Throughout the history of the Church, Christians have consecrated time by pausing at various moments throughout the day to pray the Liturgy of the Hours, also known as the Divine Office. Day after day, hour after hour, Christians unite their hearts with Christ and his Church as they pray the Divine Office. This book will assist parish communities and groups of Christians who wish to gather to pray the Liturgy of the Hours.

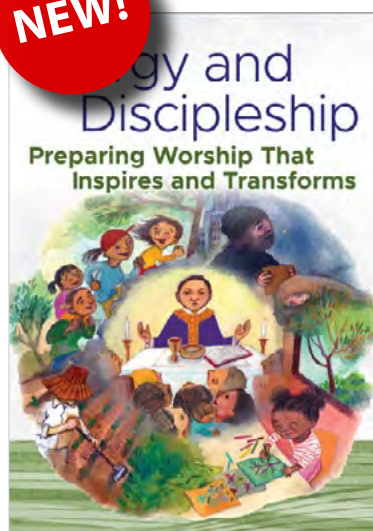

As part of the Preparing Parish Worship™ series, this book includes:

- Theological reflections on the consecration of time
- A historical overview of the development of the Liturgy of the Hours
- A walk-through of the Hours
- Answers to frequently asked questions with responses to difficult pastoral situations

LTP Liturgy and Discipleship

Preparing Worship That Inspires and Transforms

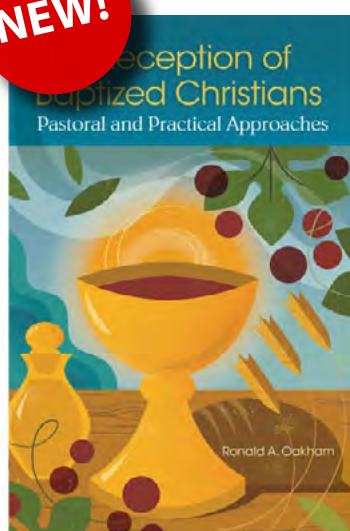

The liturgy of the Church is an encounter with our loving God. It transforms those who worship, forms disciples in the teachings of Jesus, and sends them forth to serve God with love, charity, and justice. This pastoral resource provides trust-worthy and practical ideas for preparing the liturgy by integrating the needs of the world in an appropriate way. The ideas adhere to liturgical norms and Catholic Social Teaching and explore the many options provided in the ritual texts.

LTP The Reception of Baptized Christians

Pastoral and Practical Approaches

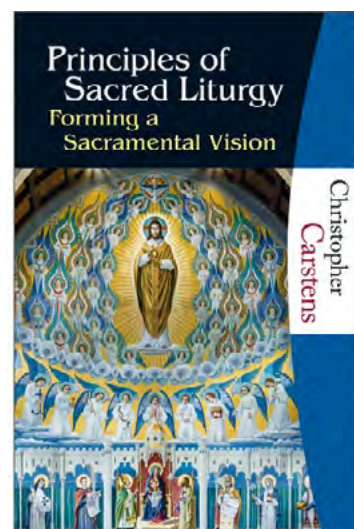

Receiving baptized Christians into the full communion of the Catholic Church is not initiation. As validly baptized Christians, they have already been initiated into Jesus Christ. When we welcome them, we are welcoming brothers and sisters in Christ, whether they are fully catechized practicing members of their faith communities or have received little or no Christian formation. It is a situation that calls for ecumenical sensitivity and pastoral wisdom on the part of those who will accompany these candidates as they prepare for reception. In this book, Ron Oakham grounds his proposal for the reception of baptized Christians in the Church's Decree on Ecumenism and the text of the Rite of Reception into the Full Communion of Catholic Church. Using the practices of experienced parish ministers around the country, he describes a path for the preparation of both catechized and uncatechized candidates grounded in their Baptism. Finally, he discusses the celebration of the Rite of Reception and mystagogical reflection.

LTP Principles of Sacred Liturgy

Forming a Sacramental Vision

Jesus' saving Paschal work continues today in the liturgy and sacraments. They have the power to sanctify and beatify those who engage the liturgy with proper minds and hearts.

In this comprehensive and accessible book, author Christopher Carstens:

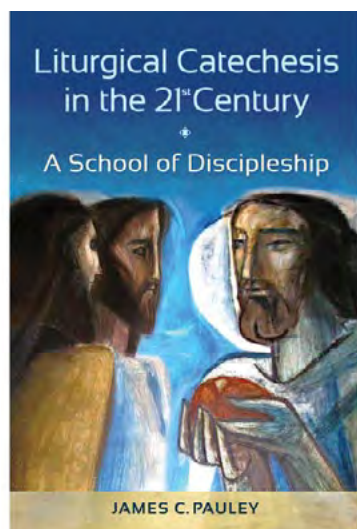

- Explains the Church's teaching on the sacred liturgy.
- Shows the meaning of ritual, the characteristics of liturgical rituals, and why men and women today may find ritual challenging.
- Clarifies the place signs and symbols have in liturgical worship.
- Provides a mystagogical explanation of the liturgical rites of the Church and various elements of the rite.
- Explains the Church's use of liturgical language, time, ministers, music, and architecture, and the theology that informs each.

LTP Liturgical Catechesis in the 21st Century

A School of Discipleship

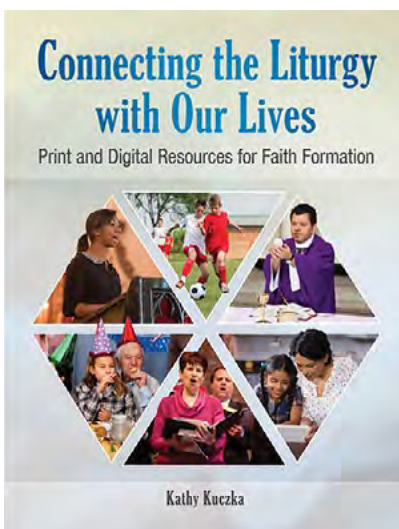

Drawing upon important twentieth-century intellectual influences as well as the experience of several of today's foremost catechetical leaders, this book will inspire readers with a promising new vision for sacramental preparation and mystagogical catechesis, one that places maximum emphasis on apprenticing people into an active and fruitful sacramental life in Christ.

Dr. James Pauley stresses the importance of discipleship [based on Sherry Weddell's Forming Intentional Disciples] and apprenticeship, leading from the visible to the invisible realities of the divine encounter with God in the sacraments. The relationship of liturgy and catechesis is vitally important to full, conscious and active liturgical participation, and to the life of holiness and missionary responsiveness which depends upon liturgy as its source.

LTP Connecting the Liturgy with Our Lives

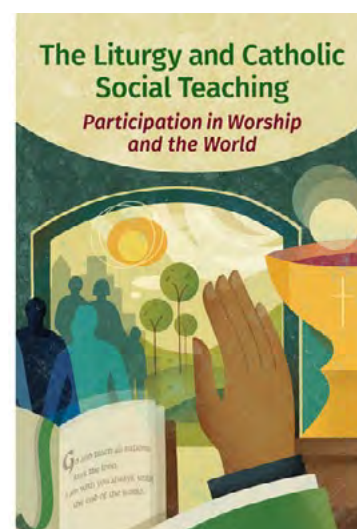

Print and Digital Resources for Faith Formation

Through images and stories that come from daily experiences, these faith formation inserts provide insights on the parts of the Mass, gestures and postures that are part of the liturgy, rites and symbols, and the liturgical year. As parishioners read these short pieces, they will relate to the mysteries we celebrate at Mass. Parishes will want to distribute these pieces during particular seasons of the liturgical year. The 63 inserts can be downloaded from the CD-ROM or from the resource's website.

LTP The Liturgy and Catholic Social Teaching

Participation in Worship and the World

Catholic social teaching guides us in how we are to live the Gospel in today's world. Liturgy forms us in these teachings and sends us out into the world to give witness to the Gospel. Organized by the seven themes of Catholic social teaching as developed by the United States bishops, this resource explores the intimate connection between liturgy and Catholic social teaching. It provides insights for parish teams on how Catholics might better live what it is we celebrate each time we gather to worship God and express more fully, consciously, and actively what it means to be in right relationship with God and the world. With questions for discussion and reflection following each thematic chapter, worship teams, parish councils, and peace and justice committees will be able to evaluate and improve parish liturgical practices and ministerial outreach as rooted in Catholic social teaching.

LTP His Mercy Endures Forever

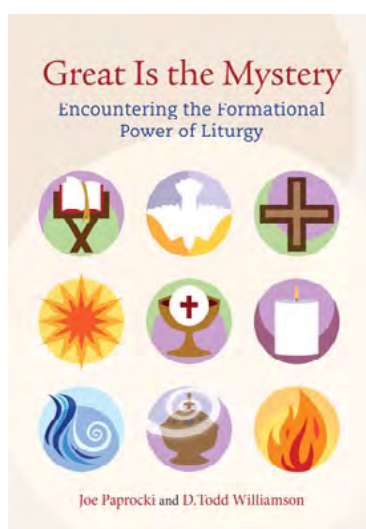

Encountering God's Mercy in the Mass

Throughout this 32-page booklet, Fr. Wilbricht shows that the mercy we are extended during the Mass requires a response. He explains that, we who share in the Eucharist are to bring Christ's resurrected life to the world. Questions for discussion and reflection at the end of each short chapter will help individuals and groups examine their understanding of the Mass and their role as Christians to bring God's gift of mercy to all they encounter.

LTP Great Is the Mystery

Encountering the Formational Power of Liturgy

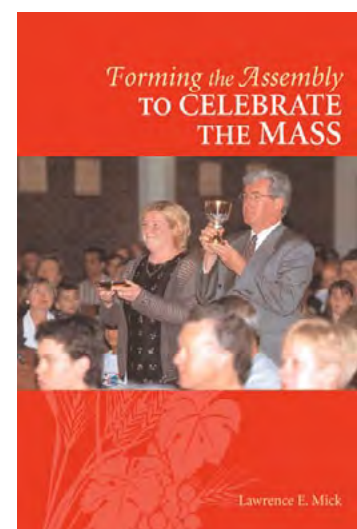

The Catechism of the Catholic Church reminds us that "the liturgy is...the privileged place for catechizing the People of God" (1075). This book is an invitation to that privileged place, the liturgy, where we encounter the great mystery of Christ that must be at the heart of our catechesis. This book is about the great mystery that is God and our encounters with God and God's saving love for us.

This book is for all those engaged in mystagogia—the kind of catechesis and formation that is the result of careful attention to and reflection on the celebration of liturgy. This is a wonderful resource for catechists and liturgists who seek to help those with whom they work to enter more deeply into the mystery of God.

LTP Forming the Assembly to Celebrate the Mass

This concise, lively book will answer questions that parish councils, liturgy boards, liturgical ministers, adult formation groups and individuals in the assembly have about what the official rites call for and how we can celebrate them well. But beyond imparting information, it provides an opportunity for group reflection and discussion—primary activities in adult formation. This book will enable your parishioners to integrate new learning with faith insights and thus become more aware and discerning participants in the Mass.

LTP Guide for Celebrating® Sunday Mass

With simple and informative guidance, this book provides a basic overview of the parts of the Mass as well as a foundational context for the celebration of the Sunday Mass. It guides readers through primary liturgical books and documents, highlights best practice, and reflects upon the catechetical and formational power of the liturgy.

As part of the Preparing Parish Worship series, this book includes:

- Theological reflections on the importance of Sunday Mass
- Historical overview of the development of Sunday Mass
- A walk-through the Order of Mass
- Answers to frequently asked questions
- Assistance with best liturgical practices
- Inspirational and informative quotations from Scripture and Church documents

LTP The Church at Worship Theology, Spirituality, and Practice of Parish Liturgy

This book is written in short, readable sections that contain discussion questions and suggestions for further reading. Written in such a way, it accommodates both the classroom and the parish. Parishes will find The Church at Worship helpful in the formation of the parish liturgy committee and for deepening the understanding of the spirituality and theology of the liturgy among parish staff. As the material deals with the general and specific aspects of celebrating ritual, it is immediately relevant to the life of the parish. Suggested reading refers the audience to the Constitution of the Sacred Liturgy, other documents of the Second Vatican Council, and the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

LTP A Common Sense for Parish Life

This brief but powerful little book challenges parishes and ministers to take stock of the community's life. The series of principles, brief reflections and questions provided within it gives a parish the opportunity to ask itself what its mission is in the broader community. This "common-sense" book focuses especially on the relationship between liturgy and catechesis, and between these two and the demands of justice.

LTP Signs and Symbols of the Liturgy

An Experience of Ritual and Catechesis

Signs and Symbols of the Liturgy will help parishes break open the signs and symbols of the liturgy in their most basic forms. It explains how to prepare a ritual and catechetical experience of the signs and symbols in which participants can interact with the symbols as they are presented, one by one.

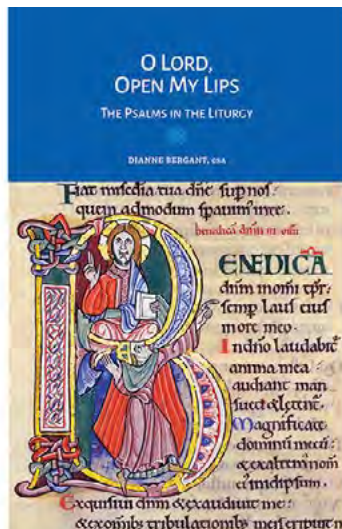

It is a wonderful resource for catechists and liturgists to use with Christian initiation groups, sacramental preparation sessions, adult formation programs, youth group meetings, and retreats for liturgical ministers.

LTP O Lord, Open My Lips The Psalms in the Liturgy

Scripture scholar Dianne Bergant, CSA takes us inside the psalms, helping us see how and why they serve the liturgy so well, giving the assembly a voice in their communal encounter with Father, Son, and Holy Spirit at every celebration. Grounding her exploration of the psalms in Pope Benedict's Apostolic Exhortation, Verbum Domini, she goes on to explain the theology the psalms for the ancient people of Israel, the theology they express for Christians of our time, their role in the Mass, in the sacraments, in the Liturgy of the Hours, in noneucharistic liturgies, and in our individual spiritual practices, such as Lectio divina.

This book will enrich all who love the psalms, especially psalmists and cantors, proclaimers of the Word and other liturgical ministers, Scripture sharing groups, and ministers of care.

LTP Drinking from the Sources

How Scripture and Liturgy Shape Our Christian Life

Drinking from the Sources: How Scripture and Liturgy Shape Our Christian Life is a companion volume to Ways to Nurture the Relationship with God. Cavalletti's method reflects her Biblical scholarship as she probes the root meaning of various words and situates various biblical passages in their historical as well as theological contexts. In this volume she focuses on several of the Eucharistic Prayers, as well as an ancient liturgical prayer of St. Basil, to stress how Christ's saving action continues in and through us when we gather for Mass. By slowly and carefully meditating on the chapters in this small volume, the reader will discover how God's plan is being realized through the divine-human cooperation, expressed in a particular way in the liturgy, and lived out in each of our lives.

LTP What Is a Parish?

Canonical, Pastoral, and Theological Perspectives

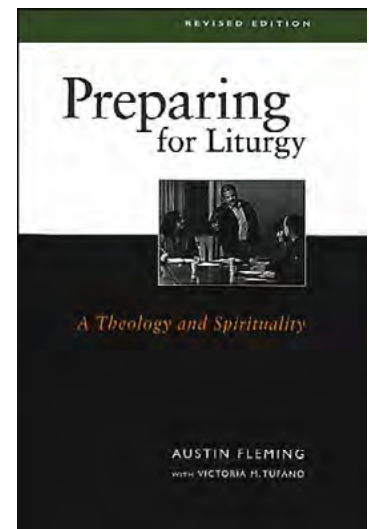

The parish is the “Church inserted into the neighborhood and the world,” the place in which the Church encounters the world and the world encounters the Church. However, the parish is rarely examined theologically or understood from a pastoral perspective. This book has three objectives:

1. It frames the parish with respect to the theological, pastoral, canonical and civil status of the parish.
2. It outlines further theological work to be done; and
3. It proposes criteria for evaluating further theological, pastoral, and civil judgments and initiative concerning the parish and parish life.

LTP The Liturgy Documents, Volume Three

Foundational Documents on the Origins and Implementation of Sacrosanctum Concilium

December 4, 2013 was the 50th anniversary of Sacrosanctum Concilium (Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy), the first document of the Second Vatican Council. To commemorate the anniversary of this most influential liturgical document, this volume collects the historical documents leading up to the promulgation of the Constitution as well as post-Conciliar documents which implemented the liturgical reform called for by the Constitution. The book begins with a schema of the history of liturgical reform providing context for the included documents. Each document is preceded with an overview written by renowned scholars and theologians.

The documents included in this volume are:

- Tra le sollecitudini
- Mystici Corporis Christi
- Mediator Dei
- Sacrosanctum Concilium
- Sacram Liturgiam
- Inter oecumenici
- Tres abhinc annos

LTP Guide for
Extraordinary Ministers
of Holy Communion
Third Edition

The celebration of the Eucharist is the heart of the Church. Participating in this sacrament enables the Catholic faithful to encounter the presence, love, and mercy of Christ. Because this sacrament is so important, the Church provides the option for lay ministers to distribute the Body and Blood of Christ when there is not enough priests and deacons available to do so; Extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion are also deputed for ministry at Mass and for the needs of the sick, the homebound, and the dying. Homiletic Directory*

The aim of this two-part Directory is to present the purpose of the homily as this has been described in the documents of the Church from the Second Vatican Council to the Apostolic Exhortation Evangelii gaudium, and to offer guidance based on these resources to help preachers carry out their mission effectively. In the first part, the nature, function, and specific context of the homily are described. In the second part, essential questions of method and content that the homilist must know and take into account in the preparation and delivery of the homily are illustrated. Two appendices follow the main text. The first gives references to the Catechism of the Catholic Church according to various doctrinal themes in the readings for each of the Sundays. The second provides references to various Magisterial teachings on the homily. This resource is a must for pastors, ministers, deacons, and all who pronounce homilies before a congregation.

LTP Preaching as Spiritual Leadership

Guiding the Faithful as Mystic and Mystagogue

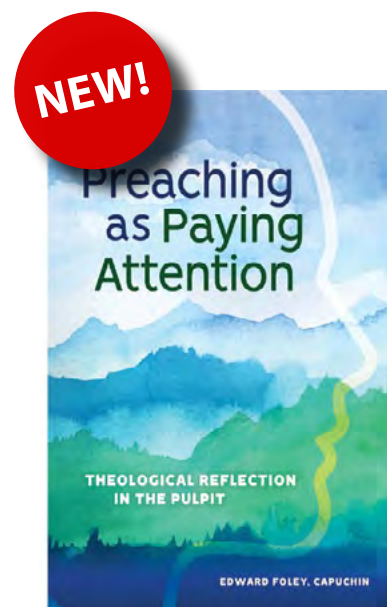

In this unique resource, Fr. Michael E. Connors gathers and expertly guides the collective wisdom of experienced preachers and homilists to provide a unique resource that examines the preacher's unique role as shepherd and a spiritual leader. The chapters will investigate these dual roles according to the roots of the Catholic spiritual tradition and provide practical advice for priests, deacons, seminarians in homiletics classes or preaching classes, retreat leaders, RCIA catechists—all who preach. Preaching as Spiritual Leadership provides solutions to the following questions:

- How is preaching embedded in the Church's pastoral mission?
- What does it mean to be a shepherd and spiritual leader for others?
- How can a preacher flourish in the role of spiritual leader?
- How can we lead others into committed discipleship through preaching?

LTP Preaching as Paying Attention

Theological Reflection in the Pulpit

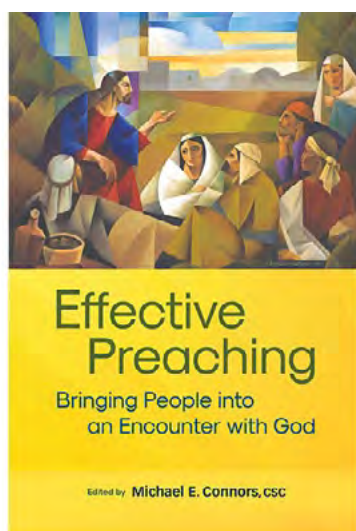

Author Ed Foley—priest, preacher, and teacher—invites preachers to an awareness of the world and the people around them as a lens for preaching God's Incarnate Word and inviting people into the Paschal Mystery. He maintains that paying attention is a key to theological reflection.

When pondering a work of art or a catastrophe, the preacher asks, "Where is God in all of this?" and "How does my preaching invite people to respond to that presence?" Fr. Foley presents excerpts of his own homilies and references to poets, scientists, and other resources—some a bit surprising—as models and suggestions that might draw a preacher's attention as a sign of God present and active in our midst. In short, this book offers a mindset, not a method, for preachers.

LTP Preaching for Discipleship

Preparing Homilies for Christian Initiation

In Preaching Discipleship: Preparing Homilies for Christian Initiation, Michael E. Connors, CSC, provides homilists and catechists with the tools to evangelize not only the catechumens present, but also to capture the imagination of the parish community so that they too realize their own role in the Christian Initiation process. This resource will:

- Help the homilist build a homily; foster a deeper appreciation of the call to discipleship on the part of the assembly
- Help the homilist instruct the assembly on their role in the Rite of Christian Initiation "so that right from the outset the catechumens may feel that they belong to the people of God"
- Help the homilist bring the baptized and catechumens into a deeper personal relationship with the Lord
- Provide specific insights during the period of Mystagogy

LTP Preaching Basics

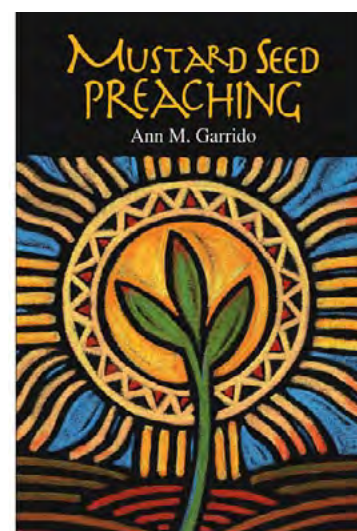

A Model and a Method

This workbook provides a clear and comprehensive definition of liturgical preaching, the conversation between the assembly and God facilitated by the preacher. Next, you'll find a user-friendly model for a preacher to use in dialogue with the lectionary, the liturgy, the world, the arts and the lives of the people who make up the assembly. An effective method is offered for preparing to preach on any given Sunday using seasonal reflection and a day-by-day plan. Sidebars containing quotes and excerpts from other sources and many worksheets to use for preparation are also included.

LTP Holy People, Holy Place

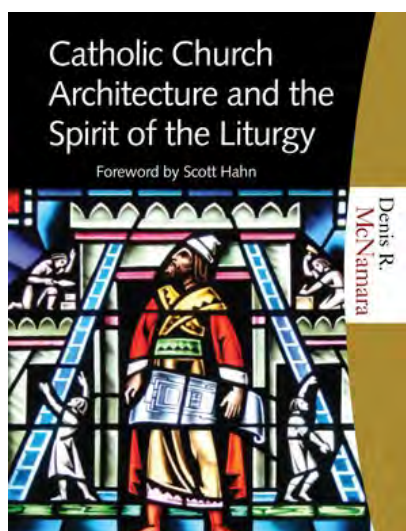

The Rites for the Dedication of a Church and an Altar, Second Edition

This pastoral resource explores the riches found in the Order of the Dedication of a Church and an Altar and is an essential guide for parish and diocesan building and liturgy committees looking to understand the Church's rites for dedication, the blessing of sacred objects, and much more. Using texts from the ritual, the author provides the reader (and building committee) a pastoral theology of what it means to be church and how the building itself shapes our identity in Christ. The rituals are metaphors that teach us and shape us into who we are called to be: the Church of breath and bone that gathers in a church of brick and board. This an invaluable resource for building committees, liturgy preparation teams, and serious students of liturgy.

LTP Fully Conscious, Fully Active

Essays in Honor of Gabe Huck

This collection of essays in honor of liturgist, writer, editor, and publisher Gabe Huck celebrates key aspects of the vision of liturgy he fostered and explores ways that vision may be more fully manifest in Christian assemblies.

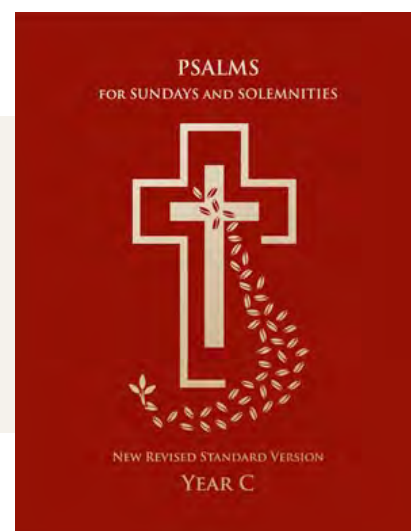

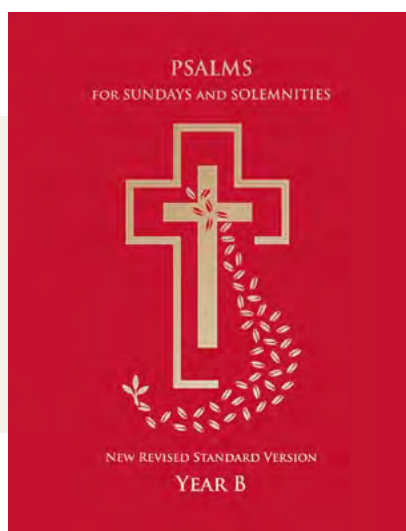

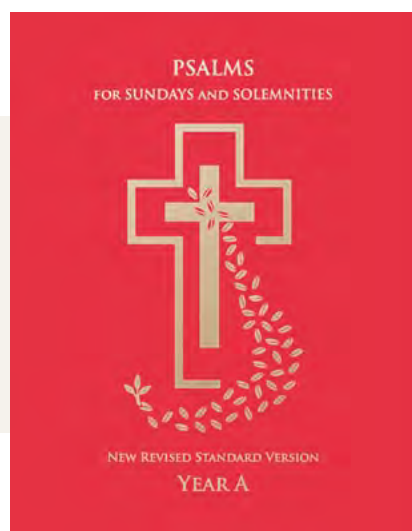

Fully Conscious, Fully Active presents an ecumenical group of liturgical scholars, practitioners, pastors, and musicians reflecting on the vision of renewed liturgical celebration, especially touching word and song, culture and language, and leadership and ministry. It imagines what contemporary, progressive, and responsive worship can be and how it can contribute to the Christian mission by lifting up the best of the North American liturgical reform and highlighting elements of that reform that lead to the "full, conscious, and active participation" of the faithful called for by the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy.

Psalms: Sundays and Solemnities (NRSV Translation)*

A publication composed of Psalm Settings for the NRSV Psalms, coinciding with the Canadian Edition of the Lectionary: Sundays and Solemnities. Most of the settings were composed by Canadian composers. There is a generous selection of Psalms for each Sunday, Solemnity and even Common "Seasonal Psalms". The book is designed to enable cantors and assemblies to sing the Responsorial Psalm during Sunday Mass and Solemnities as simply as possible. Each book is divided into two sections, the first for musicians/cantors contain the entire Psalm (refrain, verses and complete music); the second contains the refrain with music for the assembly.

Each publication includes:

- For musicians: complete music for keyboard and guitar
- For cantors: complete music for refrains and verse tones
- For the assembly: accessible melodies for the refrain
- Copyright permissions: Both the music for the musicians/cantors and that for the assembly can be copied (or projected)
- A CD is included with:
 - PDF files for easy duplication or projection
 - MP3 files with a sample of the refrain and verses (music and cantor)

LTP Sacred Music and Liturgical Reform

Treasures and Transformations

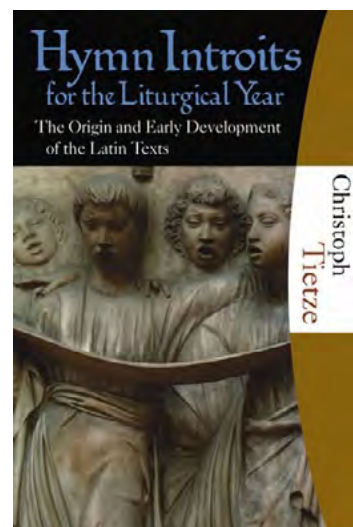

Sacred Music and Liturgical Reform is a high-level study of liturgical music in the reforms of the Second Vatican Council. Anthony Ruff, a preeminent scholar of liturgical music, proposes a hermeneutic for understanding the Second Vatican Council's teachings on worship music: a certain balanced "inconsistency" rather than absolutist and rationalistic coherence. Drawing on the musical and liturgical history that led up to and informed the statements of the Council, Ruff offers a centrist interpretation of Vatican II's teachings on worship music, an interpretation that lacked scholarly statement, and in the process fills a gap by seeking to reclaim and redefine the "center." This is an essential text for all professors and students of liturgical music, as well as music directors.

LTP Living Your Baptism in Lent

Weekly Reflections for Your Journey

Through the grace of our Baptism, we have become sons and daughters of God. As such, we are strengthened by the Holy Spirit to reject sin and choose instead to follow God. Each week, readers consider this choice as they reflect on the questions asked before Baptism. These questions, or baptismal promises, shape our understanding of what it means to live a Christian life. They call us to become witnesses of our faith to others, especially to those who are preparing to be baptized at the Easter Vigil. Our Lenten journey leads us to the celebration of Easter, where we renew our baptismal promises and rejoice in the salvation gained for us by Christ's Resurrection. Each week's reflection ends with questions and Scripture passages to use in individual prayer. A guide for leading small groups in these reflections is also included.

LTP A Journey through the Three Days

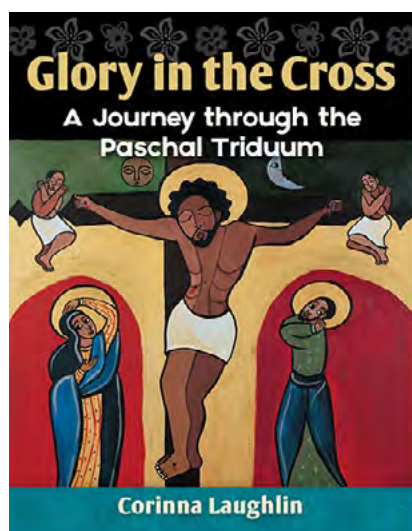

Theological Reflections on the Paschal Triduum

This resource provides a spiritual journey through the Three Days of the Sacred Paschal Triduum. Each chapter reflects on the Triduum from a unique perspective and includes questions for discussion as an opportunity to gain a deeper understanding of the sacred mysteries of the Catholic faith. It illustrates the Triduum as the highest form of worship, ritually enacting human life and its set of relationships with God and each other. Donna Eschenauer clarifies and develops a theology of the Paschal Mystery as revealed through the rites of the Triduum, ultimately offering a foundation from which to understand all Catholic liturgy and to uncover its power to form Christian disciples.

LTP What Am I Doing for Triduum This Year?

For Teens

This little workbook is written especially for teens to introduce them to the three most holy days of the Christian year. Paul Turner worked in consultation with a teen focus group to develop brief but captivating descriptions of the mysteries, symbols, scripture, prayers, liturgies, and practices of Roman Catholics during the Triduum. The language used, examples, and reflection questions have all been developed to inspire teens. Spaces for writing plans and reflections are provided to create an interactive tool for going on a personal retreat from the evening of Holy Thursday, through Good Friday, Holy Saturday, and into Easter Sunday morning.

LTP How Deep the Mystery

Meditating on the Words of the Mass

Rooted in Sacred Scripture, the words of the Mass are a wellspring for prayer, meditation, and contemplation. Reflecting more deeply on these liturgical texts provides the opportunity to enrich our experience of the Mass. In How Deep the Mystery, Sr. Joyce invites us to explore some of the common prayers we pray at Mass. She provides a structure that any reader can easily adapt for use with favorite texts from the Mass.

This resource includes the following for each common prayer chosen:

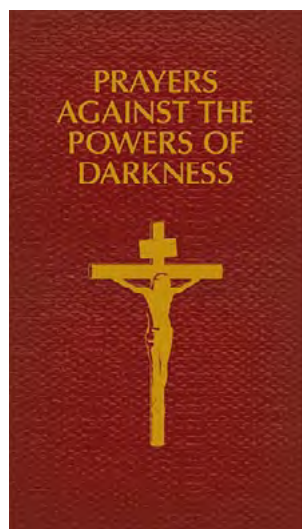

- The official text from The Roman Missal
- Sr. Joyce's reflection to help guide your personal reflection
- Two or three statements/questions to help facilitate your meditation and journaling
- A closing prayer

Prayer Card of Saint François de Laval, patron of the Bishops of Canada

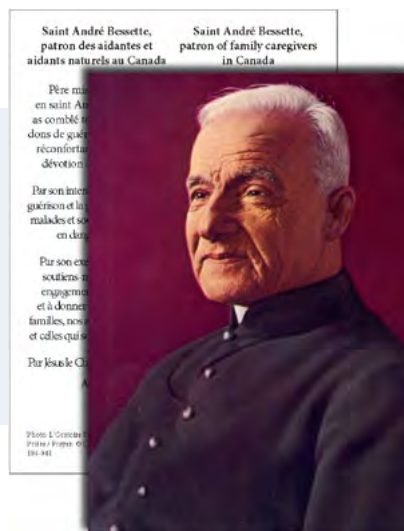

The first Bishop of New France faced the challenge of a 17th century diocese that spanned most of what is now known as Canada, much of upper New England and all the Mississippi Valley, extending even to the Rocky Mountains. He is admired for his efforts to defend the Indigenous Peoples and foster education. He was committed to the care of the poor and evangelization, and dedicated himself to pastoral work through prayer and penance. In 2014, Pope Francis proclaimed François de Laval a Saint of the Universal Church. In 2016, the Canadian episcopate unanimously declared him patron of the Bishops of Canada.

Prayer Card of Saint André Bessette, patron of family caregivers in Canada

For 40 years, when his apostolate permitted, Brother André visited the sick in Montreal. He comforted the disabled and the chronically ill, praying with them, and through the intercession of Saint Joseph healing many. A century later, his dedication and example continue to give hope to those who are ailing, and to inspire family members and friends to care for them. In 2010, Pope Benedict XVI canonized Saint André Bessette. In 2016, the Bishops of Canada unanimously declared him patron of Canadian family caregivers.

Prayer Card of Saint Kateri Tekakwitha, protectress of Canada

Daughter of an Algonquin mother and an Iroquois father, the "Lily of the Mohawks" as a young girl had been left scarred and visually impaired by small pox. After being baptized as a young woman, she dedicated her life to Christ through virginity, prayer and humble service. Well known for her charity, she nonetheless endured false accusations, yet after her death in 1680 at the age of 24, her slanderers praised her. Several decades later, she was already popularly known as the "Protectress of Canada", a title Pope Benedict XVI also used at her canonization in 2012 and which the Bishops of Canada unanimously declared in 2016.

Prayer Card of Consecration to the Immaculate Heart of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary is a meaningful and consoling practice and has been since the dawn of Christianity. Prayer to the Mother of Jesus is a source of inexhaustible blessings and graces for those who seek to deepen their faith, grow in love for Christ and the Church, and walk in hope. Consecrating oneself to Our Lady has also a rich theological and spiritual significance, for the more we are devoted to Mary, the closer we will come to Jesus and through him, to the Father in the Spirit. The Virgin Mary, as Vatican II teaches, is our model and mother, type and most eminent member of the Church, shining forth as "a sign of sure hope and solace to the people of God during its sojourn on earth."

Celebrating the Lectionary is a supplementary catechetical resource that helps you bring the richness of the Lectionary and the liturgical year into your catechetical program. It can be used in Catholic school programs, during the process of preparing children for Christian initiation, or as a supplement to a traditional basal text for Catholic school or parish religious education programs. It has been changed from a school year annual to now follow the pattern of the Lectionary. It includes sessions for every Sunday of the liturgical year (Advent, Christmas Time, Lent, Easter Time, and Ordinary Time), sessions for each day of the Sacred Paschal Triduum, and sessions for, solemnities, and feasts so that you can use it in a variety of catechetical settings.

Directory for Catechesis*

This third edition of the Directory for Catechesis (2020), prepared by the Pontifical Council for the Promotion of the New Evangelization, "offers fundamental theological-pastoral principles and some general guidelines that are relevant for the practice of catechesis in our time" (p. 15)

Updated in part to address the rise of the digital culture and to incorporate the reflections on the recurrent theme of evangelization from synods of the past decade, the Directory is divided in three parts:

1. Catechesis in the Church's mission of evangelization
2. The process of catechesis
3. Catechesis in the particular Churches

The Directory for Catechesis is for all bishops, priests, deacons and consecrated persons and all catechists at the Diocesan/Eparchial, parish or school level engaged in the catechesis and evangelization of the faithful and of all people. It also serves as a tool for the elaboration of a national or local directory.

LTP Belonging to God's Family

Nurturing Your Child's Faith Life

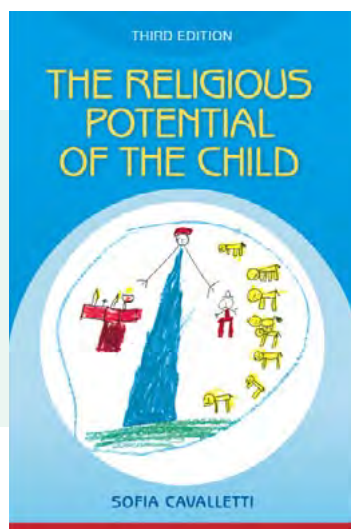

Parents need support and care in helping to raise their child—not just with physical needs, but spiritual ones, too. Author Kara O'Malley is a parent of children pre-school age and offers her own wisdom in helping to raise faith-filled children. This resource enables parishes to provide parents with basic formation on the sacrament of Baptism and offer ways to begin cultivating a spiritual life at home during the early years before child begins formal religious education. Families will also come to know the grace and the support the community of faith offers, especially through the celebration of the Eucharist.

LTP The Religious Potential of the Child

Experiencing Scripture and Liturgy with Young Children, Third Edition

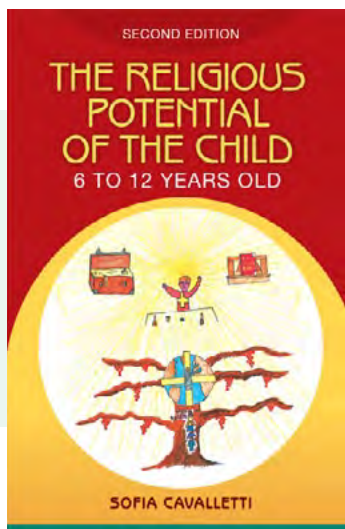

This book describes the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd, a Montessori-based style of catechesis that focuses on the child's independent journey to God by working with materials in a specially prepared place called an atrium. Written by Sofia Cavalletti, the Italian scripture scholar who developed the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd, this classic work demonstrates the profound spiritual capabilities of children as brought forth through their engagement in the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd. This book is important for anyone desiring to learn about the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd or the spiritual life of children ages 3-6.

LTP The Religious Potential of the Child

6 to 12 Years Old, Second Edition

The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd for the older child builds on the foundation in scripture and liturgy offered to the younger child (3 to 6 years old). The theme of the covenant between God and humankind, first revealed to the people of Israel, is expanded to include the dimension of time: all of history, from creation to the parousia. For the older child, awareness of participation in this covenant relationship leads spontaneously to a sense of moral responsibility, and of engagement with the cosmos in all its manifestations.

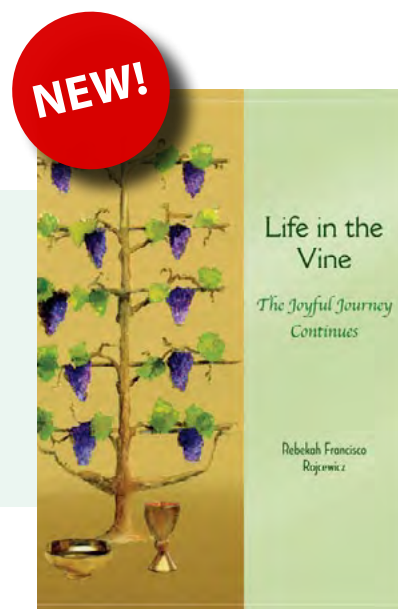

This book will be a great help to educators and catechists who seek to understand the characteristics of the older child, particularly the child's relationship with the mystery of God.

LTP Life in the Vine

The Joyful Journey Continues

The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd is an approach to the religious formation of children that is grounded in an understanding and appreciation of the child's relationship with God through their engagement with Scripture and liturgy.

In this companion to The Religious Potential of the Child 6-12 years old, author Rebekah Rojewicz documents the decades of work and the journeys that catechists and older children, six to twelve years old, have made with Jesus the True Vine. For parents, catechists, and those who seek to take seriously Jesus' challenge "to change and become like children" (Matthew 18:3), this book serves as an invitation to the same joyful journey.

LTP The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd in a Parish Setting

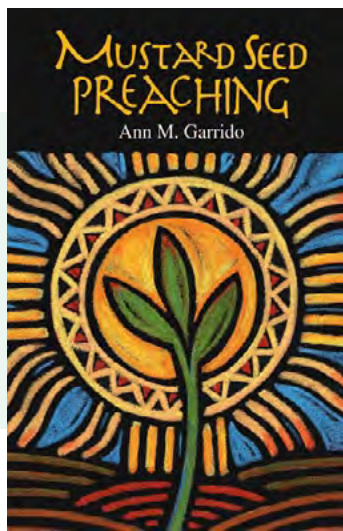

Revised Edition

What happens when a parish community chooses the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd for its youngest members? What questions should be asked before that decision is made, and after? What does an atrium look like? What do you need? How do you start? And how did this type of Catechesis ever get started in the first place?

This newly revised edition of Tina Lillig's practical and enduring resource offers step-by-step information to address the questions of pastors, directors of religious education, parish staff members, parents, catechists, and anyone else interested in the great blessing that young children are to the parish community.

LTP The Good Shepherd and the Child

A Joyful Journey, Revised and Updated

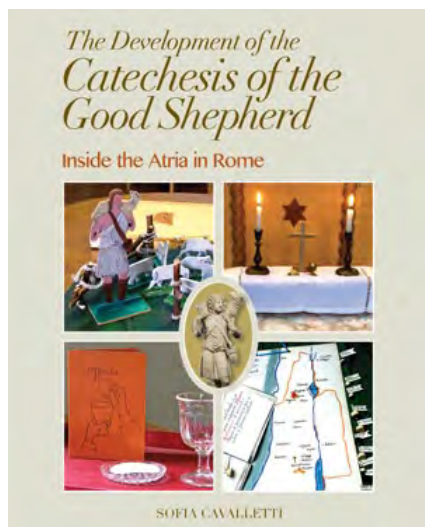

Now revised and updated with reflections by Rebekah Rojewicz, this foundational text outlines the trusted methods used for training those in the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd program. Exploring the development of the program since its 1959 origins, this edition reflects changes in the materials made by Catechesis of the Good Shepherd founder, Sofia Cavalletti. Rebekah Rojewicz's new introduction provides a concise overview of these revisions, while recounting the origins of the program's desire to nurture the child's potential for a relationship with God.

LTP A Child's Book of the Mass

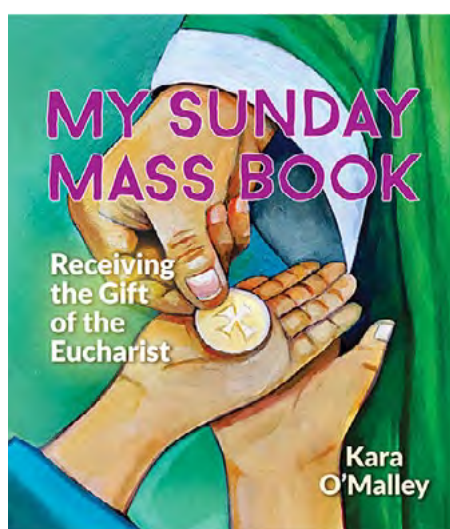

One of the best liturgical-catechetical Mass books for young children. The writers have done an exceptional job of presenting the rituals of the Mass in a way that will engage children and enable them to reflect at their own level on the meaning of the parts of the Mass. Also throughout the text, children are presented with questions that will draw them into participation in the Mass and help them develop a Eucharistic spirituality.

LTP Violence and Nonviolence in Scripture

Helping Children Understand Challenging Stories

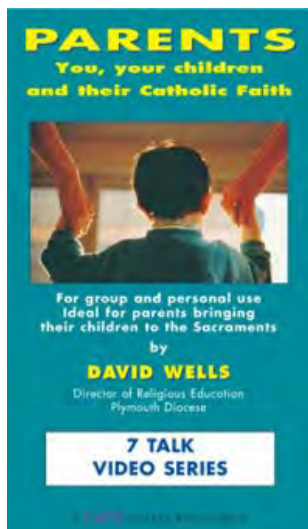

Children often struggle with the Biblical stories that portray God as violent or condoning violence. Maresca provides us with an approach for helping children to develop a foundational relationship with God before engaging Scriptural accounts that challenge their understanding of God's actions. As a Montessori educator for 30 years, she understands the developmental stages of children and knows what Scriptures children are ready to understand. As a catechist of the Good Shepherd during those 30 years, she is able to provide practical ways to help children become familiar with the meaning and mystery of how God acts in the world in our lives.

Parents

You, Your Children and Their Catholic Faith

Ideal for parents and educators bringing children to the Sacraments, the series of 7 talks is flexible and can be used in several ways. David's mixture of teaching and moving storytelling inspires questions and promotes discussion.

These DVDs directly address the relevance of Baptism, Reconciliation, and the Eucharist... and the guidance the Church offers as opportunities to nourish family life in the midst of day-to-day challenges. They present a realistic understanding of parents and their modern lives.

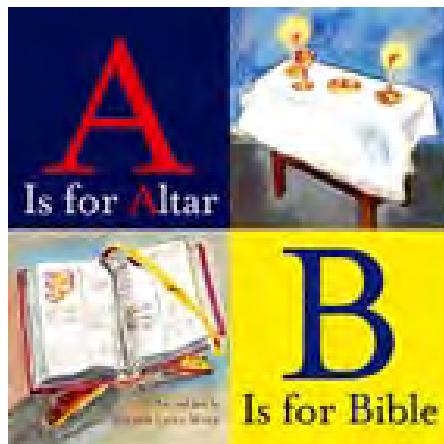

The 7-talk series comes with a Leader's Manual that provides key points, scripture references, Catechism quotes, and questions for small group discussions.

7 talks include:

- Who would be a parent?
- Why bother with baptism?
- Confession – do they still do that?
- The Mass – do we need it?
- How do children believe?
- How can parents help?
- Parents for life!

Includes 2 DVD set and Leader's Manual, CAFE

LTP A Is for Altar, B Is for Bible

Using the familiar foundation of the ABCs, A Is for Altar, B Is for Bible presents some of the essential elements of our Christian faith in a prayerful and enjoyable format. Each letter of the alphabet is illuminated by a colorful, inviting image, which is in turn accompanied by a brief prayer drawn from scripture or the liturgy. Taken together, these words reveal the many and various ways God is revealed to us. Add it to the parish and school library, church nursery, and religious education classroom.

LTP Sunday Morning

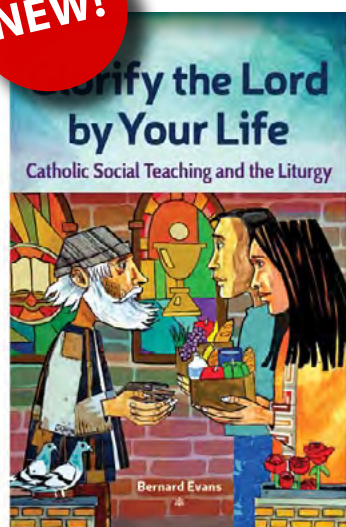

Introduce little ones to the wonder of our God and to what the Church does on Sunday in a way even the youngest child can appreciate. The words and phrases used in Sunday liturgy are presented in people-centered art swirling with detail. Multicultural illustrations paint stories of God's love for all people, which we hear in the liturgy of the word. Use this with pre-school or day-care classes, first communion and children's Bible classes. You'll discover it will open hundreds of ways to talk about and explain Sunday worship.

LTP Glorify the Lord by Your Life

Catholic Social Teaching and the Liturgy

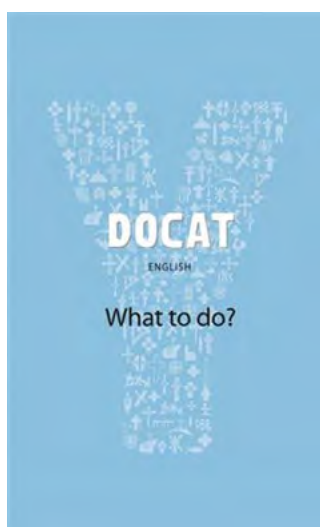

Finding a way to guide congregations through economic, cultural, and political problems is critical. We may not know exactly how Jesus would have handled specific issues of today, but we can look to his actions, words, and spirit to give us guidance for challenging situations.

This resource provides a unique approach for understanding the important connection between the liturgy and the seven primary themes of Catholic social teaching. It will inspire you to deepen your relationship with God and with others, to become more aware of the needs of the world, and recommit yourself to live as Christ's disciples in the world.

Ever Ancient Ever New

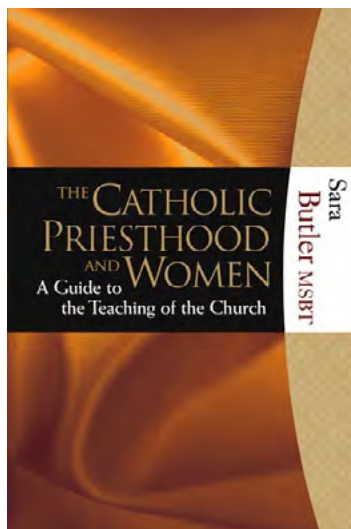

An Introduction to Consecrated Life and the Ordo Virginum

A Canadian publishing first on a little-known aspect of Catholic practice: Consecrated Life. Dr. Nolan provides a comprehensive overview of Ordo Virginum, a vocational state for Catholics that dates back to apostolic times for women who wish to be formally consecrated so as to serve Christ and the people of God. Nolan's interest is not only historical. She has created a useful handbook with theological, spiritual and practical advice for those interested in pursuing this commitment today. A handbook for individuals, this book also serves as a diocesan resource with its inclusion of a model of preparation and formation that can be readily adopted and adapted by dioceses interested in supporting this vocation.

LTP The Catholic Priesthood and Women

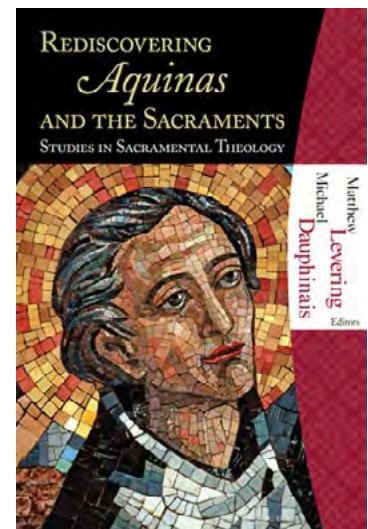

A Guide to the Teaching of the Church

In his letter Ordinatio Sacerdotalis, Pope Saint John Paul II stated: "Wherefore, in order that all doubt may be removed regarding a matter of great importance, ...I declare that the Church has no authority whatsoever to confer priestly ordination on women and that this judgment is to be definitively held by all the Church's faithful." With that declaration, the question of women's priestly ordination in the Catholic Church was effectively closed. While the Church's position is clear, many priests, religious, seminarians, and lay ministers search for a way to answer questions regarding the Church's teaching. In The Catholic Priesthood and Women: A Guide to the Teaching of the Church, Sister Sara Butler attempts to answer those questions through a close examination of the Church's teaching on the ordination of women to the priesthood.

LTP Rediscovering Aquinas and the Sacraments

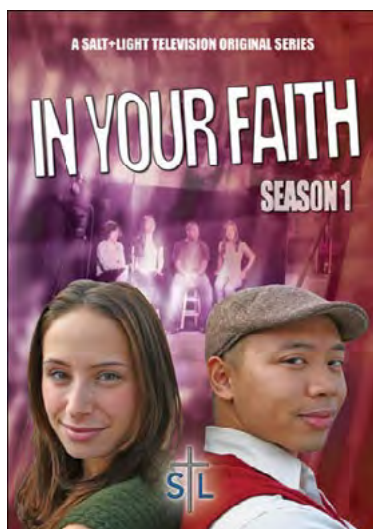

Studies in Sacramental Theology

Rediscovering Aquinas and the Sacraments: Studies in Sacramental Theology introduces the reader to the scope of St. Thomas Aquinas' sacramental and liturgical theology. The reader will receive a taste of why the Church has found St. Thomas' thought on these subjects to be both "rigorous" and "religiously exhilarating." By means of his exploration of how each sacrament causes in us a particular fusion to Christ through the Holy Spirit, Aquinas still assists believers today in understanding the role of each of the sacraments in the life of faith. This is an ideal resource for students of all sacraments courses.

In God's Image

Early Childhood

In God's Image affirms four- and five-year-old children in all aspects of their growth. It celebrates the wonder of children as a trace of God, made in God's image and likeness. This early childhood resource is age-appropriate and is compatible with existing educational resources for four- and five-year-old children. It engages children at the affective and sensory levels, enhancing their religious and social symbols at this early stage of life. In God's Image affirms what a child of four or five does very well already by nurturing the child's ability to play, be creative, and wonder. This is the child's way of being religious in the world.

Be With Me

Year 9

Be With Me flows out of the Year 7 and 8 programs, Believe In Me and Stand By Me, which are based on the Apostles’ Creed. The Year 9 program examines the three theological virtues (faith, hope and love) along with the virtues drawn from the Beatitudes and the Ten Commandments, which students must cultivate if the profession of the faith is to have long-lasting meaning and impact on their lives. Following the Learning Cycle methodology, this program assists young people in understanding both the joy and the demands of following in the way of Christ and living out the faith that our community professes in the Creed. Using the Beatitudes as touchstones, young people will undertake this study within the context of their own life issues.

Contents Overview

The content of the Year 9 program is based on Part 3 of the Catechism of the Catholic Church: “Life in Christ.”

- Unit 1: Be With Me
- Unit 2: Be Alive
- Unit 3: Be Faithful
- Unit 4: Be Loving
- Unit 5: Be Obedient

Christus vivit*

Post-Synodal Apostolic Exhortation Christ is Alive!

In this Post-Synodal Apostolic Exhortation, published by the Holy See on April 2, 2019, Pope Francis addresses young people specifically, together with all the Church. "Inspired by the wealth of reflections and conversations that emerged from" the Synod of Bishops on Young People, Faith and Vocational Discernment held in 2018, the Holy Father has included those proposals that he "considered most significant" (n. 4). The document is organized in nine chapters and deals with difficult issues such as migrants and abuse, but also focuses on the important themes of youth ministry, vocation, and discernment.

Gaudete et Exsultate*

Apostolic Exhortation on the Call to Holiness in Today's World

In his third Apostolic Exhortation, Gaudete et exultate ("Rejoice and Be Glad"), published April 9, 2018, Pope Francis' aims "to repropose the call to holiness in a practical way for our own time, with all its risks, challenges and opportunities" (No. 2).

Gaudete et exultate is organized in five chapters:

1. The Call to Holiness
2. Two Subtle Enemies of Holiness
3. In the Light of the Master
4. Signs of Holiness in Today's World
5. Spiritual Combat, Vigilance and Discernment

Amoris Lætitia*

Post-Synodal Apostolic Exhortation on Love in the Family

The Apostolic Exhortation reminds us that "the desire to marry and form a family remains vibrant, especially among young people," and that "the Christian proclamation on the family is good news indeed" (no. 1). At the same time, the Exhortation reflects on the "crises, worries and difficulties" which face family life (no. 231), and reminds pastors and communities of faith to prepare couples for marriage (no. 205) and accompany them in the first years of married life (no. 217). Likewise, Amoris Lætitia challenges all the faithful to do more in accompanying, discerning and integrating those family situations which "radically contradict" the ideal of Christian marriage or "realize it in at least a partial and analogous way" (no. 292).

Laudato Si' *

Encyclical Letter on Care for our Common Home

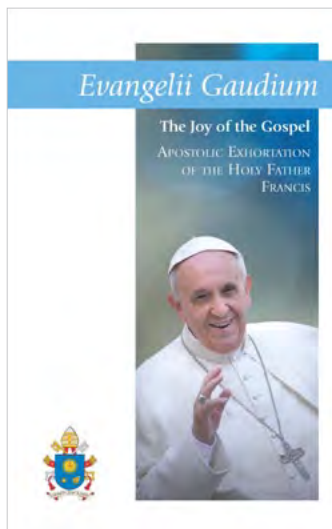

In this Encyclical Letter, the central question posed by Pope Francis is: "What kind of world do we want to leave to those who come after us, to children who are now growing up?" (no. 160). He adds, "Unless we struggle with these deeper issues, I do not believe that our concern for ecology will produce significant results." Indeed, with this Encyclical, Pope Francis wishes to "enter into dialogue with all people about our common home" and calls for an "ecological conversion".

Apostolic Exhortation on the Proclamation of the Gospel in Today's World

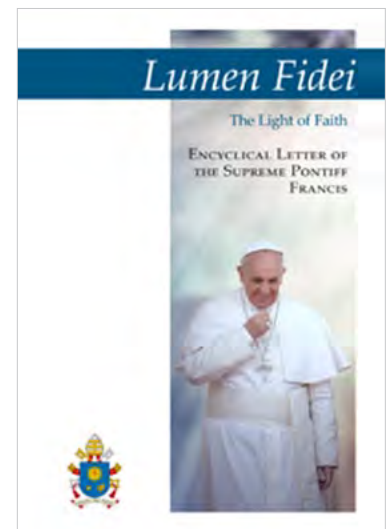

"The joy of the gospel fills the hearts and lives of all who encounter Jesus. Those who accept his offer of salvation are set free from sin, sorrow, inner emptiness and loneliness. With Christ joy is constantly born anew." In his first Apostolic Exhortation, released November 26, 2013, Pope Francis wishes "to encourage the Christian faithful to embark upon a new chapter of evangelization marked by this joy, while pointing out new paths for the Church's journey in years to come."

Lumen Fidei*

Encyclical Letter on Faith

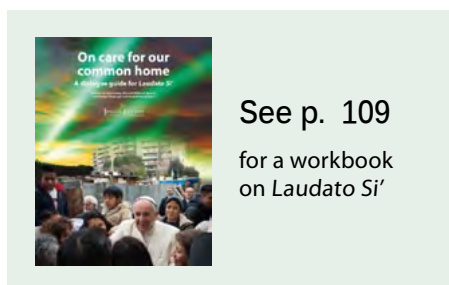

The first Encyclical Letter signed by Pope Francis, Lumen fidei – The light of faith –, was released on July 5, 2013. The Encyclical Letter is about the light of the faith and is divided into four chapters: We have believed in love; Unless you believe, you will not understand; I delivered to you what I also received; and God prepares a city for them. In the introduction of his Encyclical Letter, the Holy Father wrote "In God's gift of faith, a supernatural infused virtue, we realize that a great love has been offered us, a good word has been spoken to us, and that when we welcome that word, Jesus Christ the Word made flesh, the Holy Spirit transforms us, lights up our way to the future and enables us joyfully to advance along that way on wings of hope". The initial text of this Encyclical on faith had been almost completed by Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI, and then Pope Francis added "further contributions" to the first draft.

Apostolic Exhortation on the Word of God in the Life and Mission of the Church

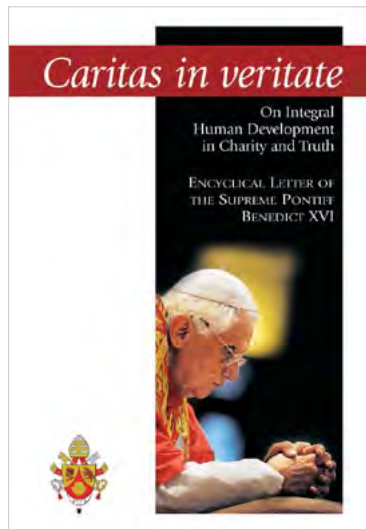

The Twelfth Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops, meeting in the Vatican from October 5-26 2008, had as its theme: The Word of God in the Life and Mission of the Church. With this Post-Synodal Apostolic Exhortation, Benedict XVI readily responds to the request of the Synod Fathers to make known to the whole People of God the rich fruits which emerged from the synodal sessions and the recommendations which resulted from their common endeavour.

Caritas in Veritate*

Encyclical Letter on Integral Human Development in Charity and Truth

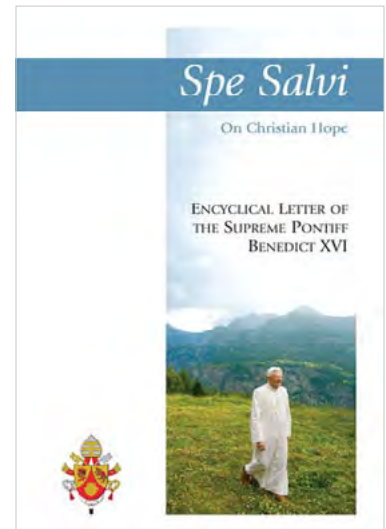

"Charity in truth, to which Jesus Christ bore witness by his earthly life and especially by his death and resurrection, is the principal driving force behind the authentic development of every person and of all humanity." From these opening words, Pope Benedict XVI goes on to explain the central role of charity "at the heart of the Church's social doctrine." In Caritas in veritate he defines this as "the principle around which the church's social doctrine turns, a principle that takes on practical form in the criteria that govern moral action."

Spe Salvi*

Encyclical Letter on Christian Hope

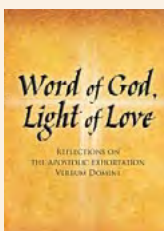

In this second encyclical, Benedict XVI deals with the incompatibility between Christian hope and the individualism found within society. "Flowing into this self-critique of the modern age there also has to be a self-critique of modern Christianity..." he writes. This results in beautiful and profound meditations on Christian concepts of faith, eternal life, life as a relationship, individualism, being (for others), and hope and the modern age. The letter concludes with three prescriptive "Settings" for learning and practicing hope, and a final meditation on Mary, our "Star of Hope" on the human journey.

Deus Caritas Est*

Encyclical Letter on Christian Love

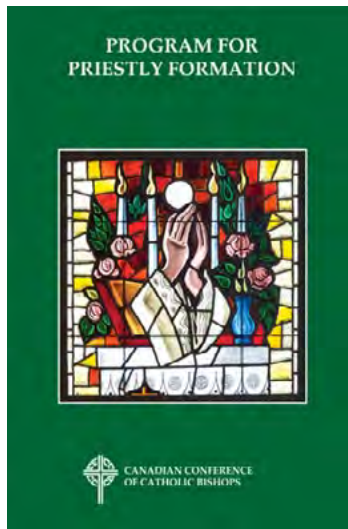

In introducing his letter, Pope Benedict XVI writes: "I wish in my first Encyclical to speak of the love which God lavishes upon us and which we in turn must share with others." He describes how the words of the title, "God is love," taken from the First Letter of John, "express with remarkable clarity the heart of the Christian faith." This historic encyclical, the first by Pope Benedict XVI, conveys a timely message written in an accessible style. The letter is divided into two interconnected parts. With the first part, the Holy Father seeks "to clarify some essential facts concerning the love which God mysteriously and gratuitously offers to man, together with the intrinsic link between that Love and the reality of human love." The Pope notes that the second part "is more concrete, since it treats the ecclesial exercise of the commandment of love of neighbour."

Program for Priestly Formation

Ratio formationis sacerdotalis nationalis

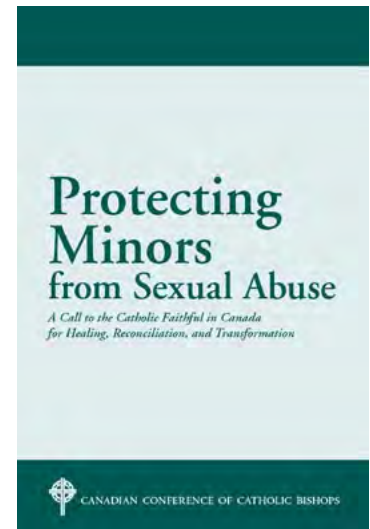

The 2018 Program for Priestly Formation outlines the basic principles and guidelines for the formation of candidates to the priesthood, particularly those called to live their priestly lives as diocesan priests in English-speaking Canada, so they may be adequately prepared to exercise their future pastoral ministry at the service of the Church in today's Canadian society. It also addresses the different agents involved in each diocese in the work of priestly vocation awareness and preparation for seminary entrance.

Protecting Minors from Sexual Abuse – A Call to the Catholic Faithful in Canada for Healing, Reconciliation, and Transformation

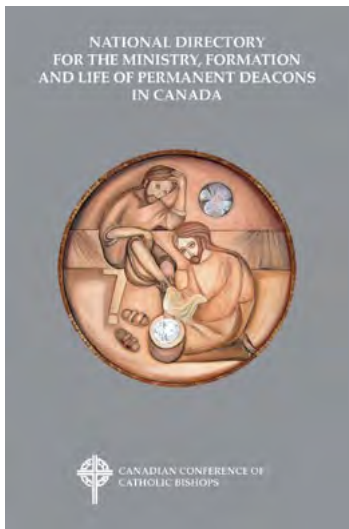

This resource arises as a response by the Catholic bishops of Canada concerning the need to update and expand their efforts at safeguarding pastoral environments and to improve responses to complaints regarding the sexual abuse of minors and vulnerable adults. Drawing on the experience of the leadership of the Catholic Church in Canada, on the expertise of numerous professionals, on the insights of victims, and on the latest canonical requirements of the Holy See, the present document will be an indispensable resource to those – be they clergy, consecrated persons, or laity – who, in view of their specific ecclesial responsibilities, hold positions of authority and have oversight of pastoral staff and volunteers. This document will also be of interest to the Catholic faithful at large as they participate in the Church's efforts to undergo the purification and transformation which have become urgent in order for the Gospel to continue to be faithfully and credibly proclaimed and lived out in every community and at all levels of society.

National Directory for the Ministry, Formation and Life of Permanent Deacons in Canada

Issued with the canonical approval of the Latin Rite Bishops of Canada and the recognitio of the Congregation for Clergy, this Directory co-ordinates, updates and supplements the information and guidelines previously provided by the CCCB on permanent deacons in Canada, taking into account new situations and needs. Its purpose is to provide guidance in the formation, ministry, and life of permanent deacons as well as basic standards for the coordination and updating of diaconate programs and policies at the local level. Prescriptive in Canada as of 10 August 2017 (the Feast of Saint Lawrence, deacon and martyr) for Latin Rite dioceses and those responsible for permanent diaconate programs in the Latin Church, the Directory will also be a necessary resource for all permanent deacons ordained in the Latin Rite and those Latin Rite clerical institutes of consecrated life which have permanent deacons.

Homiletic Directory*

The aim of this two-part Directory is to present the purpose of the homily as it has been described in the documents of the Church from the Second Vatican Council to the Apostolic Exhortation Evangelii Gaudium, and to offer guidance based on these resources to help preachers carry out their mission effectively. In the first part, the nature, function, and specific context of the homily are described. In the second part, essential questions of method and content that the homilist must know and take into account in the preparation and delivery of the homily are illustrated. Two appendices follow the main text. The first gives references to the Catechism of the Catholic Church according to various doctrinal themes in the readings for each of the Sundays. The second provides references to various Magisterial teachings on the homily. This resource is a must for pastors, ministers, deacons, and all who pronounce homilies before a congregation.

Directory for Catechesis*

This third edition of the Directory for Catechesis (2020), prepared by the Pontifical Council for the Promotion of the New Evangelization, "offers fundamental theological-pastoral principles and some general guidelines that are relevant for the practice of catechesis in our time" (p. 15)

Updated in part to address the rise of the digital culture and to incorporate the reflections on the recurrent theme of evangelization from synods of the past decade, the Directory is divided in three parts:

1. Catechesis in the Church's mission of evangelization
2. The process of catechesis
3. Catechesis in the particular Churches

The Directory for Catechesis is for all bishops, priests, deacons and consecrated persons and all catechists at the Diocesan/Eparchial, parish or school level engaged in the catechesis and evangelization of the faithful and of all people. It also serves as a tool for the elaboration of a national or local directory.

Rejoice!

A Letter to Consecrated Men and Women

In this letter to religious men and women, based on the teachings of Pope Francis, on the occasion of the Year of Consecrated Life, readers will appreciate the exceptional love and joy that marks this life: "In their finite humanity, on the margins, in their everyday struggles, consecrated men and women live out their fidelity, giving a reason for the joy that lives in them. So they become splendid witnesses, effective proclaimers, companions and neighbors for the women and men with whom they share a common history and who want to find their Father's house in the Church." And further defining the essence of consecrated life, the authors note that: "We are invited to promote a generative, not simply administrative, dynamic to embrace the spiritual events present in our communities and in the world, movements and grace that the Spirit works in each individual person, viewed as a person." This book is uplifting and affirming reading for anyone in consecrated life or considering it.

LTP A Liturgical Companion to the Documents of the Second Vatican Council

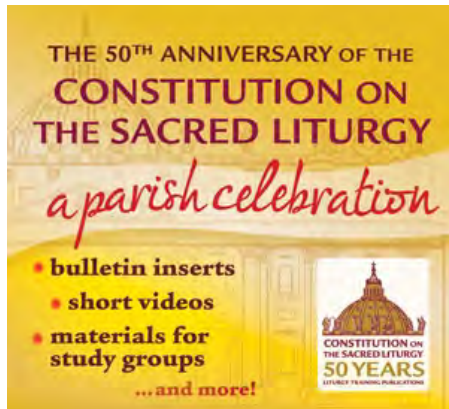

The Second Vatican Council was arguably one of the most significant events in the Catholic Church during the twentieth century. The Council produced sixteen documents that articulated significant issues facing the Church and repositioned Catholic theology in light of the modern world. Most notably, the first document of the Council, Sacrosanctum Concilium, emphasized the liturgy as the source and summit of Christian life. As such, the liturgy is intimately connected to all facets of Church theology and practice.

Celebrating the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy

All Gathered Here clearly shows that the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy was not written in a vacuum. In this celebration of fifty years since the promulgation of the Constitution, Fr. Daniel P. Coughlin, the first director of the Office for Divine Worship for the Archdiocese of Chicago, looks back on the early days of the liturgical reform. Fr. Paul Turner, Mary Collins, OSB, and Fr. J. Michael Joncas, among others, discuss our encounter with the Paschal Mystery, the increased use of Scripture at Mass and its impact, and how the liturgy nourishes us for our work in the world.

LTP A Pastoral Commentary on Sacrosanctum Concilium

The Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy of the Second Vatican Council

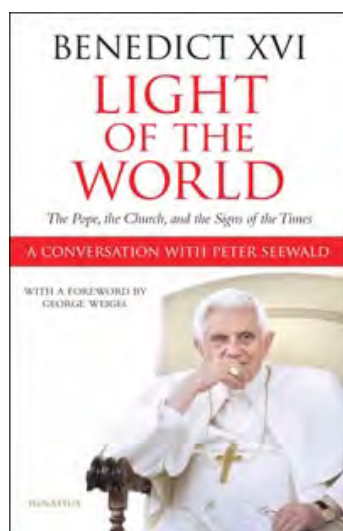

The Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy was promulgated on December 4, 1963 and was the first document of the Second Vatican Council. Fifty years past the Council, the Constitution is still the most important and foundational and provides the lens from which all other liturgical documents should be interpreted. This pastoral commentary examines the Constitution article by article. Written by noted liturgical scholars and pastoral liturgists, the commentary addresses the theological, historical, and pastoral implications of the implementation of the liturgical reform. Parish staffs and volunteers will find the questions for discussion and reflection extremely helpful for ongoing liturgical practice, implementation, and renewal.

Light of the World

The Pope, the Church, and the Signs of the Times

Never has a Pope, in a book-length interview, dealt so directly with such wide-ranging and controversial issues as Pope Benedict XVI does in Light of the World. Taken from a week-long series of interviews with veteran journalist Peter Seewald, this book tackles head-on some of the greatest issues facing the world of our time. Seewald poses such forthright questions to Pope Benedict as:

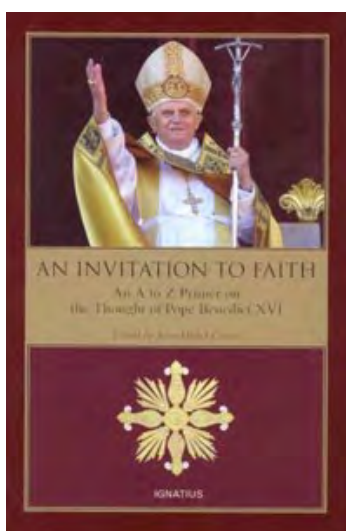

- What caused the clergy sexual abuse in the Catholic Church?
- Was there a “cover up”?
- Does affirming the goodness of the human body mean a plea for “better sex”?
- Can there be a genuine dialogue with Islam?
- Should the Church rethink Catholic teaching on priestly celibacy, women priests, contraception, and same-sex relationships?
- Holy Communion for divorced-and-remarried Catholics?

Jesus of Nazareth: Part I

From the Baptism in the Jordan to the Transfiguration

In this bold, momentous work, Joseph Ratzinger – in his first book written since he became Pope – seeks to salvage the person of Jesus from recent “popular” depictions and to restore Jesus’ true identity as discovered in the Gospels. Through his brilliance as a theologian and his personal conviction as a believer, the Pope shares a rich, compelling, flesh-and-blood portrait of Jesus and invites us to encounter, face-to-face, the central figure of the Christian faith.

Catechism of the Catholic Church*

The full, complete exposition of Catholic doctrine, this second edition of the international bestseller has been significantly expanded, enhancing both its content and usability. Revised in accordance with the official Latin text promulgated by Pope John Paul II in 1997, the second edition now includes more than a hundred additional pages, offering such new features as a glossary of terms, an index of citations from sources and in-brief texts on core teachings. The essential elements of faith are presented in the most understandable manner, enabling everyone to read and know what the Church professes, celebrates, lives, and prays in her daily life. The first new compendium in more than 400 years, the second edition of the Catechism stands, in the words of Pope Saint John Paul II, as "a sure norm for teaching the faith" and an "authentic reference text."

The Co-responsibility of the Lay Faithful in the Church and the World

This Pastoral Letter by the CCCB Commission for Doctrine explores the great responsibility of the laity in God's plan for the world, in which they are not simply collaborators of the clergy but are truly "co-responsible" for the Church's being and acting. It notes the unique mission of the laity as being "in the world" and transforming it from within, through their life and witness. It also discusses the danger of clericalism, and considers several areas of society today that stand in need of the transforming power of the Gospel brought by the Church's lay faithful in communion with members of the clergy and consecrated life.

Celebrating and giving thanks for the gift of consecrated life

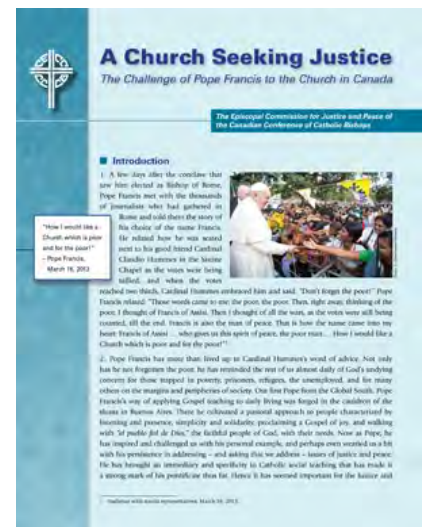

Letter to all the members of the Church for the Year of Consecrated Life

Letter to all the members of the Church for the Year of Consecrated Life

The Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops (CCCCB) and the Canadian Religious Conference (CRC), together with representatives from secular institutes and new ecclesial movements, have prepared a message to mark the Year of Consecrated Life. Issued jointly by the Presidents of the CCCC and the CRC as an open letter, the message invites all the members of the Church in Canada to celebrate the witness of consecrated life, and to express thanks to God for its continually unfolding expressions and its many forms of service to the Church and to society. Responding to Christ's invitation to follow him through celibacy, poverty and obedience, religious institutes, secular institutes, new ecclesial movements and consecrated virgins are a sign of God's love and care for his people.

A Church Seeking Justice

The Challenge of Pope Francis to the Church in Canada

A Church Seeking Justice, by the Episcopal Commission for Justice and Peace, is an introduction to the social teaching of Pope Francis during the first two years of his pontificate. Dealing broadly with the themes of Human Dignity and Labour, War and Peace, and the Economics of Exclusion and Isolation, this document outlines the freshness and urgency with which Pope Francis is calling us to act for justice and offers reflection questions tailored to our Canadian context.

A Church in Dialogue – The Catholic Church and Interreligious Dialogue

Celebrating the 50th anniversary of Nostra Aetate

To mark the 50th anniversary of the Second Vatican Council's Declaration Nostra Aetate, the CCCB Commission for Christian Unity, Religious Relations with the Jews, and Interfaith Dialogue has developed a pastoral resource entitled A Church in Dialogue – The Catholic Church and Interreligious Dialogue. This resource is well suited for parishes and high school religion classes, providing an introduction to the Catholic Church's involvement in and contributions to interreligious dialogue over the past 50 years. The renewed relationship with the Jewish people and the fruitfulness of Catholic – Jewish relations is a central theme highlighted in this document. Nostra Aetate, the Declaration on the Relation of the Church with Non-Christian Religions, was promulgated by Blessed Pope Paul VI, October 28, 1965.

A Church in Dialogue – Catholics and Muslims in Canada

Believers and Citizens in Society

The CCCB Commission for Christian Unity, Religious Relations with the Jews, and Interfaith Dialogue has developed a pastoral resource to help Canadian Catholics better understand their Muslim neighbours, entitled: Catholics and Muslims in Canada: Believers and Citizens in Society. The first part of the resource presents the origins of Islam, its main currents today, its similarities with and differences from Christianity. The second part provides an overview of the history and present state of interreligious dialogue between Catholics and Muslims, both at the international and national level, concluding with some suggestions about how everyone can contribute to such dialogue.

A Church in Dialogue – Catholic Ecumenical Commitment

To celebrate the 50th anniversary of the Second Vatican Council's Decree on Ecumenism, Unitatis Redintegratio, the CCCB Episcopal Commission for Christian Unity, Religious Relations with the Jews and Interfaith dialogue has published a new popular resource, A Church in Dialogue – Catholic Ecumenical Commitment. The document is intended for parishes and discussion groups. It provides introductory information about the Catholic Church's commitment to and involvement in ecumenism following Vatican II, as well as about the role of dialogue in ecumenical work. This new resource also defines key terms and definitions to help those who are exploring and discovering what ecumenism is all about.

The Essential Elements of Evangelization Today

What does it take to be evangelizers in the pluralistic world we live in as Canadians? In this pastoral reflection, the Episcopal Commission for Doctrine proposes a path forward following the example of the early Church. The central theme is that of a threefold witness which manifests (1) a personal, living encounter with Christ, (2) the love lived in Christian community, and (3) service to others. Although this text was composed prior to the release of Pope Francis' apostolic exhortation Evangelii Gaudium (The Joy of the Gospel), its approach and recommendations are similar, while providing a uniquely Canadian perspective.

Pastoral Letter on Freedom of Conscience and Religion

In its pastoral letter, the Permanent Council of the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops (CCCC) explains why freedom of religion and conscience is necessary for the common good of countries such as Canada where religious diversity is the norm. The pastoral letter, addressed to everyone of good will, calls on Catholics, all believers, and even those of no faith, 1) to affirm the right of religion to be active in the public square, 2) to maintain healthy Church-State relations, 3) to form consciences according to objective truth, and 4) to protect the right to conscientious objection. The letter also encourages all faith communities to contribute to the formulation of public policy and the common good, and concludes by exhorting believers not to compromise their convictions but to stand up for their faith, even if they must suffer for it.

The Second Vatican Council

What was it and why is it important today?

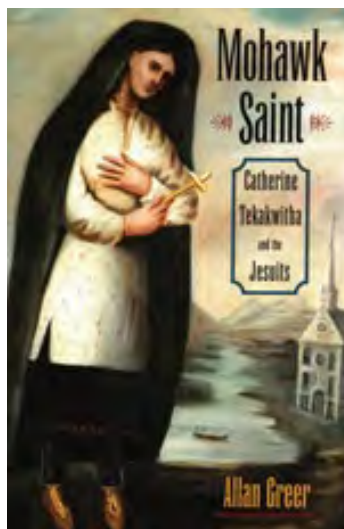

In this pastoral resource, the CCCB Commission for Doctrine deals with the “what” and the “why” of Vatican II and its continuing importance for the Church, as well as regarding the Council documents themselves. Among the principal documents of the Council, the Commission notes the four most important (known as “Constitutions”): Sacrosanctum Concilium (on the Liturgy), Lumen Gentium (on the Church), Dei Verbum (on the Word of God), and Gaudium et Spes (on the Church in the Modern World). The Commission points out how these and other Vatican II documents continue to impact the lives of Catholics today.

Mohawk Saint

Catherine Tekakwitha and the Jesuits

With this richly crafted study, Allan Greer has written a dual biography of Tekakwitha and Chauchetière, unpacking their cultures in Native America and in France. He examines the missionary and conversion activities of the Jesuits in Canada, and explains the Indian religious practices that interweave with converts' Catholic practices. He also relates how Tekakwitha's legend spread through the hagiographies and to areas of the United States, Canada, Europe, and Mexico in the centuries since her death.

Finding Saint Anthony

A Story of Loss and Light

This film reveals the journey of Fernando Martins de Bulhões, a 13th century Christian whom we know today as Saint Anthony. Here, we discover a young man who was often "lost" and searching for direction. He wanted to make a difference in the world of his time. As we encounter his humanity, we find someone we can relate to, someone who struggled in life, someone we could have easily called a friend. Shot on historic locations in Portugal and Italy, Finding Saint Anthony: A Story of Loss and Light is a documentary film that focuses on the experiences of Fernando (Anthony) in his search for the life God is calling him to lead. And as we look closely at his journey, what we find may surprise us: a reflection of ourselves.

Signposts of our Faith

One of the best resources we have for understanding terms such as “vocation” and “mission” is found in the lives of those who have modeled these profound subjects. Sometimes overlooked, Canada’s rich spiritual heritage offers many powerful testimonies in this regard. Signposts of Our Faith: Canadian Witnesses to Vocation and Mission introduces the lives of such figures, displaying how they exemplify the universal call to holiness, marriage, the priesthood and religious life, and our individual priestly, prophetic and kingly missions. These witnesses include the Canadian Martyrs, Saint Andre Bessette, Saint Kateri Tekakwitha, Br. Antony Kowalczyk, Jean Le Ber, Bishop Grandin, Catherine Doherty, Joseph Chiwatenhwa, Fr. Joseph Morrow, Katherine Hughes, as well as Georges and Pauline Vanier. This book is written in accessible language and contains practical suggestions to assist a new generation engage in the challenge of discernment.

Witness to Faith

An Introduction to the Life of Joseph Chiwatenhwa

The life of this 17th century model convert to the Catholic faith is an inspiring and compelling story! In their reports the Jesuit Missionaries who came to New France gave considerable attention to the virtues of Chiwatenhwa, and regarded him as a saint and an apostle. There is also a possibility that he died for his faith. In his visit to the Martyr’s Shrine in Midland, Ontario in 1984, Pope Saint John Paul II spoke about the heroic witness Chiwatenhwa gave to his faith, and referred to him and his wife as “eloquent models for lay ministry.”

Together We Heal

A 12-Step Approach for the Healing of Sex Abuse

In his nearly forty years as a priest and archbishop, Sylvain Lavoie journeyed with victims of sexual abuse. Particularly in his ministry among the Aboriginal community, and those who suffered greatly in Indian Residential Schools, Lavoie heard first-hand the profound and unfathomable grief and pain that victims experience. Moved by those stories, he sought to create ways for victims of sexual abuse to experience healing and relief from their pain.

Attentive to the uniqueness of each person's story, Lavoie proposes a 12-step healing model focused on forgiveness, healing and moving on. Offering recommendations for pastoral care and creating safe spaces for victims, Lavoie helps ministers facilitate this process and provides a way for victims to experience healing from the tragic abuse that they have experienced. Lavoie's guide is profoundly respectful and attentive to all who make the difficult journey. It comes from the heart of a pastor who cares deeply for all people.

Walk a New Path

Forgiveness, Grieving and the Twelve Steps

From the author of Drumming from Within and Together We Heal, Walk a New Path explores the author's journey towards recovery from co-dependency and workaholicism and the universal lessons drawn from his experience in Canada's Far North. For people dealing with grief, depression, addiction and trauma, moving towards clear thinking can be difficult. Lavoie lays out each of the 12 steps for healing, drawing from personal stories and the Christian Tradition to offer a roadmap to recovery. These steps help those suffering from various forms of abuse see their own experiences as opportunities for growth. Priests, parish leaders, counsellors and parents will appreciate this book just as much as the people it directly helps.

Children of the Batey

For the impoverished children of sugar cane cutters in the "bateyes" of the Dominican Republic, sugar is much more than just a sweetener. These children and their families struggle daily to obtain proper education, health care and other basic human rights. St. Peter's Parish in Woodbridge, Ontario, responded to the needs of these children by organizing a week-long summer camp in the "bateyes" and a beautiful exchange happened! They became the hands and feet of Christ, and in the process allowed the faith and joy of the children to touch their hearts.

Lives in the Balance

Charity or Social Justice

The Ontario Conference of Catholic Bishops participated in a two-year social audit process designed to reveal some of the deficits in the province of Ontario in the practice of social justice. The outcome of the project was the publication of the book, Lives in the Balance and a documentary by the same name produced by S + L. This film looks at social justice issues through the eyes of an immigrant family, a single mother, and someone who relies on disability support. As you watch the video we invite you to rejoice in how human beings help each other but also reflect upon what we could all do to bring greater justice to our society.

In Her Footsteps

The Story of Kateri Tekakwitha

This moving documentary takes us on a journey from northern New York State to Montréal and Kahnawake; from Washington State to New Mexico, as we follow St. Kateri's incredible journey of deep faith, heroic sacrifice and love of Christ. Featuring many people who have been touched by her – including Philadelphia's Archbishop Charles Chaput, OFM, of the Prairie Band Potawatomi tribe, the only Native American archbishop; Bishop James Wall of Gallup, NM, the diocese with the largest number of Native American Catholics; Sr. Kateri Mitchell, SSA, the Executive Director of the Tekakwitha Conference, and Jake Finkbonner, the little boy who received the miraculous healing that led to her canonization – the film shows that no one is too simple or too young to follow Christ, and that this woman, whose face was scarred and vision was weak, is still a source of Grace and healing for all.

Finding Saint Anthony

A Story of Loss and Light

This film reveals the journey of Fernando Martins de Bulhões, a 13th century Christian whom we know today as Saint Anthony. Here, we discover a young man who was often "lost" and searching for direction. He wanted to make a difference in the world of his time. As we encounter his humanity, we find someone we can relate to, someone who struggled in life, someone who could have easily called a friend. Shot on historic locations in Portugal and Italy, Finding Saint Anthony: A Story of Loss and Light is a documentary film that focuses on the experiences of Fernando (Anthony) in his search for the life God is calling him to lead. And as we look closely at his journey, what we find may surprise us: a reflection of ourselves.

The Church Alive Series

For many, Catholicism is a mere cultural label or ritual obligation. This begs the question: is Catholicism still relevant? Despite unprecedented advances in all areas of life, the fate of the human family hangs precariously in the balance. What does the Church have to say about economic upheaval, environmental devastation, or the double-edged sword of technological innovation? To many, the Catholic Church seems out of touch, always arriving late on the scene. But is this really the case? What accounts for its surprising resilience and persistent relevance?

The Celebration of Eucharist for the 21st Century*

The celebration of the Mass in the 21st century has a new translation, but it keeps the same understanding that was handed on to the Apostles at the Last Supper. This fascinating DVD prepared by the National Liturgy Office of the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops presents these foundational ideas behind the Mass and gives guidance to those who want to celebrate it with the noble simplicity that the Church teaches is to be at the heart of our entire liturgy. The celebration of the Mass is shown in small segments, designed for workshop and discussion groups. And because of the great commentary on the celebration, it is also an excellent resource to use for individual reflection.
